There are some wounds
no drugs can heal!

WHEN a man is hit in battle, he gets the best of care. No effort, no expense is spared to save our wounded boys.

But there are some wounds no drugs can heal... the wounds that come from loneliness, from being far from home... the wounds that come from worry... the wound of missing you until his heart breaks and he feels he can't go on.

There are no drugs for wounds like these... no drugs except a mother's touch.

And that is where the Red Cross—your Red Cross—comes in.

For the Red Cross is still the Greatest Mother in the World. All over this earth—wherever our fighting men go—the Red Cross is with them. Its Clubmobiles stand at desert crossroads. Its rest homes will be found on every front from London to Calcutta. Wherever humanly possible, its packages reach forlorn prisoners of war in far-off camps... get through the barbed wire straight from your hearts... with fine American food, cigarettes and tobacco.

When you say "Thank God for the Red Cross" remember this... it is your Red Cross... your bandages and your blood. Yes, and your money too!

Giving to the Red Cross has always been a great proud habit of thirty million American families... proud that they could give... proud of Red Cross that made the giving worthwhile.

Of course, you have given generously before. Of course, you will give again.

But this year, when the need is greater than it has ever been before... when it's eleven million of your own sons who are served... this year dig deep and be glad.

In Iceland, in India, in Italy... in Alaska or Australia... wherever in the world they are
