HE'LL KEEP HIS WAR JOB AFTER THE WAR

Pretty smart, this Joe. Maybe you'd like to know how he figures it...

Joe was all tucked out when he got home one night. He told the missus that half the trouble was getting to his job and back again, what with the traffic, and trying to find a place to park. Tough place to work, said Joe. Worse than that... when the war's over, what happens to the job?

JOE FOUND A SWELL JOB WITH A FUTURE!

Now this wouldn't be much of a story if that's all there was to it. But after looking around, Joe found just the kind of a job he was after—and he sure is happy about it. It's in South Gate, and the outfit is Armstrong Cork Company—the folks who make Armstrong's Linoleum that everybody knows about, and Armstrong's Asphalt Tile. But the plant isn't big. It's small—and out in the country where there's plenty of fresh air, and a place to park right alongside. It's the friendly sort of place where you get to know everybody and enjoy your work.

Another thing Joe thought was fine—he had a chance to see just what the job was like before he took it. He asked for Stan Campbell, and Stan took him all around the place. Told him all about the work, the hours, the pay, and the bonus.

IT'S AN IMPORTANT JOB, TOO

Joe asked whether the job was "essential"—a war job. Stan explained how Armstrong was classified as doing essential work, and how any United States Employment Service Office could give him the certificate of availability he needed.

Stan also told him about Armstrong's Asphalt Tile, the product they make in South Gate. It's being used mostly by the government and important war industries, today. But before the war it was used all over the country as a flooring for all kinds of buildings. And the backed-up demand for it is so big that the plant will be busier than ever when the building restrictions come off.

COME ON OUT AND HAVE A LOOK

You can get a job just like Joe's. It doesn't matter if you've never worked in a factory before. The work is interesting, and easy to learn. The pay starts right off, first day. AND THERE ARE JOBS RIGHT NOW.

HOW TO GET A JOB LIKE JOE'S

Come on out to the plant, 5037 Patata Street (1 block north of Firestone and 1 block east of Atlantic Boulevard). ASK FOR STAN CAMPBELL. He'll show you the job and answer all your questions. If you can't come out right away, phone KI-9104 and ask for Stan.

DON'T DELAY—Apply right away for your essential war job with a peacetime future at Armstrong's.

Color Pictures Will Portray Sermon Topic

Illustrated with a series of beautiful colored projection slides, Rev. H. Wesley Roloff will bring a message of unusual interest Sunday evening at 7:30. The pictures represent the early church, scenes from the Old Testament and many fine modern scenic views. These will be woven into a sermon entitled "Examination Day." The service is to be held in the Central Evangelical Community church, Arlington at Marcelina, in Torrance.

By arrangement with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, a representative of the state tax office will be headquartered in the chamber offices on Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25 for the purpose of aiding local citizens with their state income tax returns. Victory Garden Goal Sets Record

The greatest gardening year in the history of this country is just now beginning. The goal set by governmental authorities is 22,000,000 Victory gardens in 1944. This means an increase of 4,000,000 garden plots over last year. The importance of growing vegetables in the backyard this year cannot be overestimated. It represents one of the most essential jobs to be undertaken by the civilian population.

It is possible that more food and food supplies will be shipped abroad this year than at any other time during the war. Our men today are fighting practically all over the world. They must be fed and it should also be remembered that tremendous quantities of food are being shipped to our allies. Consequently it is very likely that a ray may materialize on the home front. Nor should it be forgotten that the per capita food consumption of those at home is probably greater than previously due to the fact that there is practically no unemployment.

Transportation, of course, is being curtailed all the time and Victory gardens help in this problem. Whatever vegetables are grown at home need not be transported from the grower to the wholesale market and from the wholesale market to your local dealer, even you save gasoline and tires by making fewer trips to your retail outlet.

This might appear unimportant in terms of an individual, but think of the tremendous saving when millions of Americans are cooperating in the same manner. Whatever else you do for the war effort, not one inch of soil in your garden should be left untillied this year. It's not only patriotism; it's common sense.

These words of the Psalmist are the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson: "Rejoice in the Lord, for He is good." "Rejoice" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston: "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations."
"Master," asked the disciples in a Bible citation from John, "who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him." And Jesus "spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam..." He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

Employers Obtain Reduction in Job Insurance Rates

Approximately 16,000 employers in California will obtain a reduction in contribution rates to the unemployment insurance fund this year, according to an announcement made today by T. H. Mufgord, chief of the division of accounts and tax collections of the California department of employment. Mufgord made this announcement with a statement that notices of the employer contribution rate for the year 1944 will be mailed to employers this week. Approximately 52,000 employers are contributing to the fund at the present time, Mufgord said, and the 16,000 who will obtain reduced rates approximates 31 percent of the total contributing employers. Reduced rates to employers are obtained through maintenance of reserve accounts with the department in comparison with total payrolls. The lowest reserve on which an employer may obtain a reduced rate is from 7½ to 9 percent of the average of his payroll. Reduced rates vary from 25 to 1 percent of the total payroll.
