MERTON GILBERT'S VIEWS ON JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Up to and including the present time we have not solved the problem of the war-time rise in juvenile delinquency. It is very apparent that some members of our city administration have reached the conclusion that our city can solve this problem by establishing the authority of correction in our over-worked and under-manned Police Department, thus establishing a natural enemy which could continue beyond our children's formative years.

Why haven't they moved to establish a non-political commission vested with the authority and funds to conduct a modern streamlined youth program?

I have pledged to the Citizens of Torrance a thoroughly non-political youth program to combat juvenile delinquency, and the establishment of a non-political recreation commission for the betterment of self-supporting adult civic entertainment and recreation.

Citizens of Torrance can elect a man to your city council who has had the experience necessary to produce such a program for your children.

THE ANSWER IS—

X Save One Vote for CHARLES M. GILBERT for COUNCILMAN

No Smoking Signs Ordered for Buses

Councilman L. V. Babcock advised at the Torrance city council meeting Tuesday night that complaints had come to him about employees of the bus department smoking while on duty. After some discussion, Manager C. Z. Ward of the bus department was instructed to see that this practice is discontinued and also to place "No Smoking" signs in all buses operated by the municipal system.

MARY NADY GAHWOLF IS SHOWER HONOREE

Mrs. Fred Gahwolf, the former Mary Nady, was complimented when Mrs. Andrew Colmer entertained recently at a stork shower at the home of Mrs. Lena Gahwolf in Redondo Beach. Games were the evening diversion and following the presentation of many lovely gifts refreshments were served to about 35 guests.
