

Charley Foy at Army Hospital

CHARLEY FOY

Soldiers recuperating at the Torrance Army Base Hospital are getting some top-notch entertainers on the entertainment program put on at the Red Cross hall, the most recent being Charley Foy, son of the late noted comedian Eddie Foy.

A surprise of the evening was the appearance of Joe Frisco, another of vaudeville's greats. The shows are arranged under the direction of Lt. Eton, public relations and morale officer. Pvt. Lou Shafran of public relations, said Charley Foy promised to return with his gang in the near future and it is likely his brother, Eddie Foy, Jr., will entertain at the hospital.

The Charley Foy show almost literally rolled them in the aisles. Playing before a capacity audience that rocked the rafters with its laughter and applause, the show featured a combination of singing and comedy, in addition to a nice bit of soft-shoe work by Charley himself.

The surprise guest star of the occasion was Joe Frisco, and before the night was over, Joe had them all gasping, from patients to doctors, from nurses to attendants. His skit depicting a worried piano player in a horse-betting parlor is a classic of American vaudeville.

Additional entertainment was provided by June Barton, Hollywood through, the smooth and sophisticated Bertie trio of Lynn, Sharon and Lee, Bernice Lewis and his guitar, and Lorraine Elliott.

Thanks are due the Aces—the Army Camps Emergency Service—directed by Charley Foy, for the appearance of Foy and other artists at the hospital.

McGuire Goes To League Meet

"No single city can solve the post-war planning problem by individual action, but instead must do it by uniting with every municipality in this area to reach a scientifically determined plan," was the statement of Tom McGuire, president of the League of California cities, southern division, and ex-mayor of Torrance, in announcing appointment of such a committee for the whole southland this week.

The southern branch of the league, meeting today in Alhambra, will receive an outline of the duties which the planning committee must perform in providing postwar jobs for an estimated 350,000 shipyard and aircraft workers, McGuire said. The committee will elect its chairman and start the drawing up of engineering specifications, with cost estimates, of the work required to maintain prosperity.

McGuire said he would resign his league post at today's meeting in view of his defeat in the city election April 11.

Honduras' national monetary unit is the limpia, with a current exchange value of about 50 cents.

Tire Inspection Ended; Records Must be Saved

Save your tire inspection records! This advice was given this week by OPA local boards. They are finding that many motorists assume that because periodic inspection of tires will no longer be required after today, it is not necessary to keep the slips which record past inspections. The tire records will be needed in renewing gas rations or getting tire certificates for replacement, says Paul Burkdale, OPA, ration chief for eight southern California counties.

"Any request to renew gasoline rations must be accompanied by all tire inspection records," warns OPA. "Failure to present them will delay issuance of rations until they have been presented or duplicated. All old inspection records must also be presented when requesting a certificate for a replacement tire, as well as a notation from an authorized inspector showing that a new tire is needed immediately."

Two Local Men Will Take Marine 'Exams'

Seven men, residents of San Pedro, Wilmington and Torrance, are among a group of 70 nominated by the United States Maritime Service, 326 N. Avalon Blvd., Wilmington, to attend USMS officer training school at Alameda with the class opening this month.

Those who will take training preparatory toward sitting for their assistant engineers' licenses include John Henry Stone, Jr., 911-C Portola ave.

Those to train for a mate's license include L. S. Patton, 2314 B. Dominguez ave., formerly in Columbia Steel's public relations office.

Graduation from the four months' intensive training leads to an ensign's commission in the United States Maritime Service and the privilege of sitting for a marine license entitling successful candidates to sail as mate or assistant engineer on ships of any gross tons, any horsepower on any ocean.

Classes are formed once each month. Men with 14 months' qualifying time in the deck or engine departments on ships of 100 gross tons or more in the Navy or U. S. Merchant Marine are eligible to apply at the Wilmington enrolling office.

Article by Local Woman Is Broadcast On Radio Program

Mrs. Eda Johnstone, new secretary at Torrance High school and a member of the Santa Monica Writers' Guild, is being congratulated on the radio broadcast recently of her article that appeared in Readers' Digest entitled "Army-Navy Game."

Mrs. Johnstone, who has a keen interest in military and naval affairs because she has a son in service, heard of a neat joke the Army boys pulled on new Navy arrivals at Guadalcanal and made it the subject of an article published in Coronet, reprinted by the Digest and then put on the radio.

The son, Qm-Sgt. Alvin A. Johnstone, USMC, was on Midway Dec. 7 when the Japs attacked and he told his mother in a letter that he got so excited he shot at a Jap cruiser with his rifle. After serving since 1940, he now is stationed at Camp Elliott near San Diego.

SOME PRESENT!

William Kempen, proprietor of the World Dress Shop and president of the Torrance Merchants Association, was 65 last Sunday and he received one birthday present he can't forget easily. It was a citation for running through a boulevard stop at Roscerans and Hawthorne blvd.—the first traffic ticket he ever received.

SERVICE SHORTS

RICHARD WASHER... an aviation cadet, stationed at Bonham, Tex., recently presented a piano concert enjoyed by a large group of U.S.O. flyers at Bonham. He is a son of I. Washer, owner of The Gay Shop, here.

DONALD WAID... gunner's mate, 2/c, serving in Mediterranean waters, in a recent letter to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beight of this city, states his impressions of many things, including the proposed "muster-out pay." He says anything less than the good old United States and its people "leave him cold." Although anxious to do his utmost to "get this thing over" he will be glad to return to his home.

DON BAXTER... a fireman 2/c, has been transferred from Farragut, Idaho, to Gulfport, Miss., where he will attend Diesel engineering school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dunbar of 1221 Acacia ave.

HERBERT QUANDT... a yeoman, U.S.N., whose home is in San Francisco, spent the weekend as the guest of his cousins, Mmes. J. P. Fluhrer and Homer Schooley. This was the cousins' first reunion in 21 years.

JACK E. LONG... an electrician's mate, 1/c, U.S.N.R., returned Friday to San Francisco following a seven days' leave with his wife and children here.

PHILIP L. HOFFMAN, JR.... a sergeant, serving as a radio technician with the 20th Fighter Control Squadron, has been transferred from Bradley Field, Conn., to Richmond, Va.

WILLIAM N. SLEETH... an aviation cadet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sidney Sleeth, 1616 Post ave., has successfully completed his basic flying training at the Lemore Army Air Field and now takes his final hurdle at La Junta, Colo., Army Air Forces Advanced Flying Training School before receiving his silver wings. Sleeth spent Sunday here en route to his new base.

ERICH R. LILIENTHAL... an instructor in engineering at Fort Belvoir, Va., and his wife, the former Marge Oble, are at home at 3722 13th st., N. W., Washington, D. C.

WILLIAM H. (BILL) DARLING... a machinist mate 2/c, would like an electric percolator for the boys who stand watch with him on his ship "somewhere in the Pacific." He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Darling of 1437 W. 218th st. The home telephone is Torrance 1042.

DON TOWNSEND... stationed at Bougainville, in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Billie Townsend, stated that he is spending his week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien. Among the interesting souvenirs received from her son, Mrs. Townsend describes bracelets made from Jap planes, Japanese currency and interesting pictures.

ROBERT GRAY WOLSTON-CROFT... who graduated last Thursday from Columbia University with a rating of ensign, United States Naval Reserve, is visiting his mother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Stephenson, 1424 Beech ave. Ensign Wolstoncroft will report for duty at a sub-chaser school at Miami, Fla., May 3.

All Set for High School's Carnival

Preparations have been completed for the Torrance High school carnival to be held tomorrow afternoon and evening at the school.

A "country fair" atmosphere is being created by the erection of many concession booths, there will be competitive contests for which prizes are given and a dance will be held in the evening at which the carnival queen will be elected and crowned.

Funds derived from the concessions and the sale of tickets will be used by the student body to purchase athletic and orchestral equipment.

TRAILER BURNS

An automobile trailer house belonging to E. L. McLaughlin caught fire yesterday afternoon at 1938 238th st. and was destroyed. The fire department was called out, on two alarms.

Home Canners Use Spare Stamp No. 37

Housewives who are starting their early home canning are reminded by OPA officials to attach SPARE stamps No. 37 to their applications for canning sugar.

A number of applications have been mailed to OPA local boards with sugar stamp 37 attached. These have been sent back with a request for SPARE stamps. Sugar stamp 37 will be used later to buy the regular household ration of sugar. SPARE stamp 37 is needed now to identify those for whom a ration of extra canning sugar is requested.

Although the household and home canning sugar ration is no less than last year, the total civilian supply is less. Because of war needs housewives are asked to use their ration sparingly and not to apply for more canning sugar than they need for canning and preserving purposes.

Frank L. Ingham's Funeral Is Held

Frank Lansing Ingham, a marine electrician, died early Saturday at a Long Beach hospital and funeral services were conducted yesterday at the North Hollywood Assembly of God church.

Ingham, a native of Canada, was stricken suddenly. He is said to have suffered from a heart ailment for some time. His wife, at the family residence, 1406 Hickory ave., was notified by the local police department, which was contacted by the hospital.

Ingham was 41. In addition to his widow, he is survived by a foster-son, Donald Holts, who resides here. Stone & Myers handled the funeral arrangements.

STROH RETURNS

Chief of Police John E. Stroh returned Tuesday from Loveland, Colo., where he attended the funeral of his father, Henry Stroh, 72, a pioneer sugar beet grower and dairyman. The chief reported his old home town in the grip of the winter's worst blizzard when he arrived—overcastless.
