Greyhound Joins Appeal for Navy Nurses

"Serve with the Navy Medical Corps," urges Pacific Greyhound Lines in their current advertisement released in more than 500 western newspapers. This is another advertisement in Pacific Greyhound's series in cooperation with the recruiting program of the armed forces, chiefly aimed at getting women to enlist in the various auxiliaries. Others were Seabees, Marines, Waves and Waacs.

This latest advertisement features both the Navy Nurse Corps, open to trained nurses, and the Waves Hospital Corps, which urgently needs other women to serve in the naval hospitals, clerical capacities and as helpers in the wards, laboratories and pharmacies. Much of this work is now being done by male hospital corpsmen and women can release these men for duty on the fighting fronts.

Said F. W. Ackerman, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines: "Anyone who has been in the Navy, as I have, will appreciate the need for women in our military hospitals. I will remember the men nurses of the last war; they were well trained and capable enough, but our wounded fighters should have as far as possible the care of women nurses, and, furthermore, the men are urgently needed to serve on the battle-fronts. Pacific Greyhound is happy to cooperate by means of this advertising with the recruiting of women for the armed forces. We look upon this advertising as a further extension of the transportation service we are providing for the Army and Navy."
