In a military setting at Waco Air Field Chapel, Waco, Texas, Miss Constance Lou Fernley became the bride of Edwin Eugene Hatter, Army Air Forces, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Lovely in an ice blue dress with white accessories and wearing a corsage bouquet of white orchids, the bride was attended by Mrs. Lyle Sage, the former Irene Findley of this city, who accompanied Miss Fernley to Texas for the ceremony.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Fernley of 1027 Beech ave., was graduated from Torrance High school and attended a Los Angeles business college. Her husband, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hatter of Ventura, will complete his wings next month, when the young couple will return to Torrance for a visit before the bridegroom's departure for his first assignment.

DEATH IN THE AFTERNOON

FOR FREEDOM'S SAKE His glory shines upon our tears . . . He was young, eager, gay — fresh of our flesh, spirit of our spirit. Happy and proud he went into battle. He met the foe valiantly, a fighter to the end. He sleeps today, across the seas . . . he sleeps for freedom's sake.

Our gratitude to all who fight for us can be fully expressed by buying War Bonds to back the attack at this zero hour.

New Officers Are Installed At Woman's Club

In an effectively simple ceremony conducted by Mrs. N. F. Jamieson last Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse, Mrs. R. R. Smith, president and her staff of officers of Torrance Woman's club, were inducted. Of interest to the community as well as to club members was the announcement of the forthcoming conversion of the clubhouse into a U.S.O. center. Arrangements will have been completed by July 1.

A splendid talk on "Johnny Doughboy in Action" by Hugo K. M. Vindal, field director of American Red Cross, recently returned from England, gave his audience an insight into problems of our boys stationed there. Many amusing anecdotes highlighted his report.

At the tea table, beautiful with summer flowers, Mrs. R. R. Smith and Mrs. George Morgan poured.

Haynes.

FATHERS DAY JUNE 18th

Nevertheless, we feel that we owe it to the fathers to tip you off to something you probably didn't know before or didn't think much about.

For Many Years

NOW COMES THE DAY

—when you can show your appreciation in a big way—
Go out and buy him something swell. He'll love it. He'll love you for it, and believe, cause it's true, he's got it coming!
