TORRANCE GREAT "V" DRIVE WAR BOND SHOW

Torrance Municipal Auditorium

Monday Evening, June 26th

STARS and more stars!

STAGE - SCREEN - RADIO

Lee Trent acts as master of ceremonies and in addition puts on two numbers of his own with Richard Martin and Michael St. Angel, while Glenn Vernon and Nancy Marlow present a song-and-dance routine.

The clever young singer, Freddy Jenal, sings a group of songs and also appears with Eden Nicholas and Heide Olsen in the "Grand Opera" number. Nicholas also sings "Amor" and "Leave Us Face It."

Among the talented young players taking part in the affair are Margaret Landry, Martha MacVicar, Elaine Riley, Shirley Ballard, Diane Alden, Marc Cramer, Michael Road, Bill Williams, Harry Clay, Eric Sinclair, Steve Barelay and Larry McGrath, with the well known actor, Neil Hamilton.

A glittering array! A sensational patriotic revue with scores of clever young musical stars of tomorrow . . . in the "Treasury Salute to TORRANCE'S Fifth War Loan Drive!"

Some thirty songs, dance routines, production numbers and sketches make up the gay package of entertainment. See and hear many of the most promising starlets of the RKO Radio, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Selznick and Columbia studios.

The entire company sings the rousing "There's a Great Day Coming, Manana," as well as the catchy new tune, "Buying a Bond for My Baby," which was written especially for the drive by the noted songsmiths, L. Wolfe Gilbert and Jimmy McHugh.

Specialty songs by the famous duo of Harry Noble and Frances King, sensational supper-club entertainers, and dances and production numbers by Dorothy Stone and Charles Collins are among the outstanding events on the program.

A great $5.00 show—buying an extra War Bond gets you in free!
