SOUTH BAY BEACH AND HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

The highly successful South Bay Beach and Highway Association will celebrate its first birthday anniversary with a dinner for members, wives and guests at the Palos Verdes Country Club on Wednesday evening, Aug. 23. Supervisor-elect Raymond V. Darby, mayor of Inglewood, will be the speaker of the evening. Musical and humorous sketches will be other program features. "The association was organized one year ago as a direct action group to serve the needs of the South Bay," declared President Oscar L. Willett today. "One year ago ten miles of our beautiful beach front were under quarantine because of the breakdown of the Los Angeles sewerage system and nothing much was being done about it."

man, Lee Arms, Hermosa Beach; D. Clifford Higgins, Manhattan Beach; Richard K. Rowell, El Segundo; Ross G. Johnston, Redondo Beach; C. Vernon Snider, Palos Verdes Estates, and Mayor W. H. Tolson, Torrance. The dinner committee announces that reservations will be limited to 200 and urges early acceptances. Councilman Charles Wortham of Redondo Beach, membership chairman of the association, is in charge of reservations.

K. C. Vanderlip Becomes Head of Palos Verdes Co.

The resignation of Kelvin C. Vanderlip as senior housing representative of the National Housing Agency was revealed today by Paul F. Williams, manager of the county's 16 War Housing Centers. Vanderlip will be succeeded by Gilbert C. Lamb, formerly manager of the War Housing Centers in San Bernardino and Riverside areas. Active for almost three years in the war housing programs in Southern California, Vanderlip organized the Southern California office of the Defense Housing Coordinator in 1941, and has been associated with the National Housing Agency since its formation in March, 1942. On Aug. 1 Vanderlip will become president of the Palos Verdes Corporation, owners for the past 32 years of approximately 10,000 acres of the Palos Verdes peninsula.
