

SGT. DINGELDEIN CITED AFTER 68 MISSIONS OVER GERMAN COMBAT TERRITORY

Master Sergeant Robert Dingeldein, son of Mrs. Leona Dingeldein of 24416 Allene st., is the first sergeant of a B-24 Liberator squadron in England which has been cited for distinguished and outstanding performance of duty by completing 68 heavy bombardment missions without the loss of a man and for the part it played in the bombing and invasion of Europe.

Sergeant Dingeldein had been first sergeant of the squadron since it was first activated back in Tucson, Ariz., in April, 1943. Sergeant Dingeldein entered the service in June, 1941, and was assigned to the Air Corps Training Center at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., where he was stationed for two years. He was then transferred to Salt Lake City, Utah, processing headquarters for heavy bombardment, and was assigned to a newly activated bomb group at Tucson, Ariz., and was chosen first sergeant of his present squadron. Sergeant Dingeldein's squadron has taken part in the all-out bombing offensive of Germany's continental fortress and was among the Eighth Air Force's first "heavies" over the invasion coast on D-Day. Its ten-man combat crews have bombed Berlin, Brunswick and other war production centers of Germany, and Nazi communication centers in France.

Major General Hodges, head of the Liberator division in England recently cited his squadron "for distinguished and outstanding performance of duty by completing 68 heavy bombardment missions without the loss of a man. This squadron has contributed greatly to the bombing and the invasion of Europe by the bombing of targets in Germany and enemy occupied Europe.

"Many of the missions were accomplished in the face of intense anti-aircraft fire and formidable enemy fighter opposi-

Game Cocks Possession Brings Fine

Pleading guilty to possession of game cocks, Art James of Torrance paid a $50 fine in Torrance City Court Saturday. Eight game cocks were confiscated by Chief of Police John Stroh and turned over to the humane society. Due to lack of evidence in the way of actual cock fighting, the charge was placed at possession and City Judge Otto Willett levied the $50 fine, which was paid.

The tenacity of purpose, efficiency, determination and devotion to duty displayed by both the ground and combat personnel reflect great credit upon themselves and the armed forces of the United States.

Sergeant Dingeldein is as proud of a recent addition to his family as he is of his squadron's citation. A baby girl, Michele Lee, was born to his wife, Mrs. Margarette C. Dingeldein, at the Rock Springs Hospital, Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Jules G. Nagy, Furrier, Is Located Here

Jules G. Nagy, well known eastern furrier, is now a resident of Torrance, living at 711 Columbia place, near the Columbia Steel plant. Nagy states he has been making furs for some of the leading families in the East for the past 25 years, including the family of A. E. Walker, president of the National Supply Company, and the Mesta family of the Mesta Machine Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Nagy is prepared to do all types of fur work, including making coats to order, restyling and repairing.

FILES CLAIM

Rosalind Silva filed a claim against the City of Torrance Tuesday night for $248.69 as a result of personal injuries and damages to her automobile suffered on Aug. 2 at 8:30 o'clock at 190th st. and Crenshaw ave. She claims the city was at fault for the accident because the contractor on the job had not provided proper warning signs of the new street improvement. The claim was referred to the city insurance carriers.

NEW NINE-ACRE PARK IS BEING PRESENTED TO CITY; TO BE BOY SCOUT CAMP

Approximately nine acres, comprising one tract of about eight acres, supplemented by two smaller tracts, have been deeded to the City of Torrance by the Hollywood Riviera Improvement Association, to be used for park purposes.

Acceptance of the deed to the property will be accomplished at the next meeting of the Torrance City Council, which body has already signified its acceptance and will dedicate same for a Boy Scouts camp.

A letter to the city council, written by James L. Lynch, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, offers the land in behalf of the Hollywood Riviera Improvement Association. The letter follows, in part:

"The Torrance Chamber of Commerce has been authorized, in the name of the Hollywood Riviera Improvement Association, to offer to the City of Torrance, an eight-acre tract in Hollywood Riviera, known as 'El Retiro,' also two additional tracts, as indicated on the attached map, all tracts totaling approximately nine acres. These tracts are deeded to the City of Torrance for park purposes.

"The Torrance Chamber of Commerce has already obtained assurances from various civic clubs in connection with donations of a flagpole, any landscaping projects necessary, plus a number of other refinements, to make this one of the finest Boy Scout camps in Southern California. Ralph Shaw of the Los Angeles War Chest has assured us that the funds for a full-time caretaker and activities director will be appropriated and the necessary expert personnel appointed. Camp Vaughn Scott will be formally dedicated during the forthcoming Boy Scouts jamboree and circus during November."

Rev. Wheeler Wants New Back Stop at Park

A new back stop at Torrance Municipal Park is one of the needs of the community, Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler told the City Council Tuesday night.

He said he was getting tired of chasing balls allowed through the back stop and at his recommendation it is said that the back stop may be provided.

June Whitt to Quit City Job

June Whitt is quitting as P.B.X. operator and license clerk in the City Hall, and Irene Dumont is being appointed in her place.

June must seek other climates due to her health, it was said, and will leave later this month.

THOMPSON NAMED

Ray Thompson has been named a temporary street department employee.

3 Good Reasons Why You Should Can Peaches Now!

1. Present indications are that the government will take 67 per cent of the canned peach crop for the armed forces, so that there will be less canned peaches for civilian use than last year.

2. The amount of commercially canned peaches for the consumer will be about 12 pounds per person as against 16 pounds a year ago.

3. There are 43 ration points required for the purchase of a No. 2 1/2 can of peaches.
