

MOTHER VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson are entertaining as their house guest this week her mother, Mrs. W. J. Noonan of Huntington Beach.

Torrance Herald

Published Every Thursday
Grover C. Whyte
Editor-Publisher
1336 El Prado, Phone 444
Torrance, Calif.

Adjudicated a Legal Newspaper
By Superior Court, Los Angeles County.

Entered as second class matter, January 30, 1914, at post office, Torrance, Calif., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Official Newspaper of City of Torrance

Subscription Rates
Anywhere in Los Angeles County
$2.00 per year
Outside Los Angeles County
$3.00 per year

Gay
FUR STAR!

SMART SABLE DYED
OPOSSUM
GREATCOAT

79.50

Lustrous, long-wearing, designed to give you beauty and duty both. Here in a "boxie" with opera cuffs. From our fur collection.

The Gay Shop
1319 SARTORI—Torrance
Torrance

Gay
Coat News!

"LITTLE BOY"
CHESTERFIELD
29.95

Casual coat love—warm and flattering over everything thru winter. Here in black, colors, with lustrous velvet collar for added dash! Big group.

Canteen Group
Arranges Party
For Mrs. Feilds

Mrs. Charles Feilds, mother of Mrs. A. H. Silligo, was complimented Friday afternoon at a lovely garden party arranged at the home of Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, 1620 Post ave. Guests, numbering about 25, were members of Torrance Branch American Red Cross Canteen Corps.

The party followed a brief business session, conducted by Mrs. Julia Neelands, chairman. At the attractively appointed table a beautifully decorated cake, inscribed "Canteen," was cut and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte and Charles V. Jones poured. Mrs. Feilds was presented with a handsome group gift in recognition for her faithful services to the Canteen Corps. The occasion was the honoree's 71st birthday.

OFFICER IS FETED
AT PATIO PARTY

Honoring their nephew, Ensign Harold Eugene Kerber, on leave from his base at New London, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Conner entertained at a patio party Wednesday evening of last week at their home, Plaza Hotel. Other guests were Lieut. Cecelia Hillmeier and Fern Keller, and Shirley Shepherd, an Air War stationed at Santa Monica, and Royal Friedley. Games were the evening's diversion. Ensign Kerber left next morning by plane for his Connecticut base.

SOCIAL CENTER
BENEFITS TOLD

Mary L. Egleson, extension director of the Council of Social Agencies, as guest speaker at the meeting of American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening, explained the benefits being derived by this community from her organization.

Other guests were Margaret Beaucamp of Pico, district president, and Maude Newstead of North Long Beach, district treasurer.

Following the initiation of six candidates, refreshments were served at tables beautifully with Halloween decorations. Mmes. Bea Burchett and Daisy Watson were hostesses.

ELEMENTARY P.T.A.
AT BOARD MEETING

To propose the planning of a request to Torrance City Council for establishing adequate recreational facilities to supplement the overcrowded recreation center, a special board meeting of Torrance Elementary P.T.A., was held Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Perry, Elementary P.T.A. president, represented her unit at the 10th District meeting held Thursday at Central Junior High school, Los Angeles.

Gay
Fashion Hit!

GLAMOR-GAY
DATE DRESS
16.95 up

Figure-moulding dress for big dates! See it here in bewitching black with "beau-atching" bows! Also in exciting colors. One of a big group. 12-20.

A GAY PLACE TO SHOP

The Gay Shop
1319 Sartori—Torrance

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY
SKATING PARTY

Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 416, sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal church, enjoyed a roller skating party Saturday at Redondo Beach. A nosebag lunch and games on the beach preceded the skating party. The party included 13 members and their guests.

Another recent project enjoyed by the group was a dog show held last Thursday afternoon at Guild Hall. Eight entries were made with the winner selected as the troop's mascot. Winners were a Peke-Pomeranian, "Pugy," owned by JoAnn Sandstrom, a thoroughbred Cocker Spaniel, "Bever Mist," owned by Donna Baer and Marlene Quaggin. "Duchess," a thoroughbred Collie. The dogs' owners were presented with red, white and blue ribbons, in the order of their awards, by Lorraine Anderson, Jackie Mantel and June Vernon, judges.

BABIES, MOTHERS
AT ANNUAL PARTY

A reception for babies who have been delivered or attended by Dr. John W. Beeman and his associates will be held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 17 and 18, at Central Evangelical Guild Hall. Mothers are invited to attend. The babies' photographs will be taken on both days. Those whose surnames begin with A through L are requested to attend on the first day and those having a name beginning with M through Z may attend on Wednesday.

GIRL SCOUT GROUP
PLANS YEAR'S PROGRAM

Girl Scout leaders and assistants met at the library last Thursday evening with Mrs. H. R. Lee, neighborhood chairman, to make plans for a unified program for the year. Mrs. Mary Baer and Mrs. W. J. Vernon represented Troop 416, Mrs. Ed Pletschke and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, Troop 184, Mrs. Marie Quigley, the newly organized Junior High age troop, and Mrs. H. H. McWald, Brownie Troop 406.

QUIMBY ENTERTAIN
AT DINNER PARTY

As a courtesy for his uncle, Eli Doster, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Quimby entertained at dinner Friday evening at their new home, 1444 El Prado. Covers were arranged for Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Olson, Messrs. and Mmes. Arthur Bascom, Richard Wellington and Mrs. Hugh Brown, all of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Maxfield Herries of Pasadena. Bridge furnished diversion for the evening.

FORMER TORRANCE GIRL HAS SON

A son, Lincoln Edward, was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Arthur at San Jose hospital Sept. 29. Mrs. Arthur, formerly Miss Cora Clemens, resided in Torrance prior to her marriage. The father is in the Marine Corps, stationed at San Diego. They have a daughter, Janet. Mrs. Arthur is a sister of Mrs. Grover C. Whyte.

SERVICE MAN FETED
AT DINNER PARTY

Honoring their son-in-law, William G. Rook, recently returned from the Aleutians, Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Foster entertained at dinner Sunday at their home, 911 Cota ave. Those present were the honor guest and Mrs. Rook, Sgt. and Mrs. J. J. McCune, Mrs. Elaine Lines and baby, Susan.

Do It Yourself—at Home
Charm-Kurl
PERMANENT WAVE KIT
Complete with curlers, and 39¢
It's easy to do and safe for every type of hair. For details, see page 12 or ask Charm-Kurl. Over 8 million sold.
Discount Drug, Torrance

P.T.A. Program
Presented Monday
To Large Group

Torrance High School P.T.A. opened the year's activities with a well attended meeting in the school auditorium Monday afternoon. Mrs. L. P. Watson presided and introduced the other members of the executive board, Mrs. E. W. Clark, Miss Armine Janaves, Mmes. J. H. Moore, W. H. Tolson, A. C. Turner, I. O. Kasten, H. R. Lee, Irene Davis, W. W. Browning, W. J. Vernon, Edgar Rose, Glen W. Bell and John R. Garner. A special guest was Mrs. J. J. Millard, member of the Tenth District board, who explained the all-inclusive membership feature whereby joining a local unit makes one a member of Gateway Council, Tenth District, the California Congress and the National Parent Teacher Association. Mrs. Garner read the stand of the state board on proposed legislation, vitally affecting the schools, urged careful study of the propositions and emphasized the state board's approval of No. 3 and No. 9 and its opposition to No. 11.

Mrs. Clark introduced Dr. Leo Athans, who spoke on the part the P.T.A. could play in the forthcoming War Chest drive, and Clarence W. Flood, who showed a film entitled "Know for Sure," which he stated was the best educational picture available on the detection and cure of syphilis.

Twelfth grade room mothers served tea in the lobby. Mrs. Paul Reams and Mrs. H. R. Moore pouring.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS
PLAN CARD PARTY

Torrance Camp No. 8908, Royal Neighbors of America, will entertain at a benefit card party Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, Bridge, pinocle, 500 and bingo will be played and refreshments will be served. The first door prize will be presented at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited.

THE J. W. SEVERNS
VISIT HERE

Corporal Joseph W. Severns, A.A.F., serving at Deming, N.M., and Mrs. Severns, who is employed in secretarial work at the same base, were entertained last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry G. Smith of 2304 Torrance blvd. The Severns will remain in Southern California during his ten days' furlough.

VIRGINIA MOORE HAS BIRTHDAY FETE

Virginia Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore of 1827 Gramercy ave., celebrated her 17th birthday with a theatre party, when she entertained Shirley and Violet Thompson, Rose Marie Newkirk, Ruth Seaborn, Barbara Fullmer, Pauline Leetz, Shirley Phoenix, Doris and Nancy Wilkes and LeRoy Moore. The group later returned to Virginia's home for refreshments.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY TO MEET THIS EVENING

V.F.W. Auxiliary will meet tonight at 1951 Carson st. There will be initiation and balloting, according to Clara Conner, president. A social evening following will be shared by members of Post 3251. Refreshments will be served.

TORRANCE HIGH P.T.A.
PRESENTS LAW CLASS

Torrance High P.T.A. will be hostess to the other schools of Gateway, Lomita-San Pedro and Gardena-Wilmington Councils when the class in parliamentary law meets in the auditorium for the concluding meetings of the series on Oct. 13 and 20 at 1 p.m. Anyone interested may attend these sessions.

Central Evangelical Guild
Will Sponsor a

2-DAY BAZAAR
FOOD and RUMMAGE SALE

Fri. and Sat., Oct. 13 and 14

At Guild Hall

1618 Arlington Ave., Torrance

(Corner Arlington and Marcelina Aves.)

Everyone Is Invited!

Mail Delivery
Necessitates
Earlier Copy

We are advancing our publication in order to permit delivery of your Herald by mail Thursday morning, effective next week. Your cooperation in submitting articles will be greatly appreciated.

Club news, social events, news of men and women in the armed services, publicity for any type of meeting, etc., should be submitted NOT LATER THAN 10 A.M. TUESDAY. Only news of developments which occur after that hour can be handled later.

Mary Vonderhage,
Woman's Page Editor.

TORRANCE RED CROSS
NEEDS YOUR HELP

Red Cross workers are reminded that there is plenty of material now at branch headquarters production room, 1345 El Prado, to be made into Navy ditty bags, khaki ditty bags, hospital jackets, diapers, head rests, lap robes, children's sweaters and khaki sweaters.

Ladies are requested to report for duty any day that is convenient. Those who will serve as chairmen during the week are: Monday, Mrs. I. W. Goss; Tuesday, Mrs. Della Page; Wednesday, Mrs. Cleo Barnett; Thursday, Mrs. Mary Lindberg; Friday, Mrs. Amanda Law. Maude Lock is production chairman and Lola Hoover, branch chairman.

MRS. JEANNE CLAYTON
RECEIVES CLUB MEMBERS

Club members were entertained at an attractively appointed party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Clayton, 1635 Post ave. Prize winners were Mmes. Daphne Jones and Martha Bishop.

TORRANCE LADIES
AT POINT FIRMIN

Representing Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, at Point Firmin Chapter Tuesday evening were Mmes. Frances Buckley, Billie Kerber, Lorraine Ulrich, Amanda Law and Jennie Moore.

ENROLL NOW FOR HOME NURSING CLASS

Mrs. Elizabeth Clemmer, Red Cross home nursing chairman for Torrance, asks that those interested in taking the nursing course contact her at once at her home, 1220 Elm ave, or leave a message at Red Cross branch headquarters, 1345 El Prado, Torrance 1524. She states that several applications have been filed and only a few are needed to complete the class quota.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
CIRCLE MEETING

Mrs. Ray Phillips will open her home at 1326 Engracia ave. for a meeting of Circle No. 3 of First Christian church, to be held at 1:30 o'clock, Thursday, Oct. 19.

SERVICE MAN WEDES
DURING FURLOUGH

Miss Lillian Fuller of 233rd st., Lomita, recently became the bride of Private Monroe E. Mead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mead of 2161 Sierra st. Rev. W. W. Jewell performed the ceremony at his home here.

The bridegroom, serving with a Coast Artillery group, was on furlough following 27 months' service in the Aleutians. He will report at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas, for a new assignment.

LEVY'S VISIT WITH KANSAS CITY FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy and their daughter, Norma, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Greenberg of Kansas City, Mo. They left Friday of last week and will return early next week.

SCOUT MOTHERS
TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Members of the Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop No. 241 will meet at 7:30 Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, at the home of Mrs. H. B. Ringle, 1012 Crenshaw blvd.

Fern Avenue P.T.A.
Receives Council
At Initial Meet

Lomita-San Pedro Council P.T.A. opened the year's activities with a meeting held Friday at Fern Avenue school, at which Mrs. M. C. Isaacson presided. Committee chairmen's reports on their plans for the ensuing year were read and a very interesting program was presented by Mrs. John R. Garner, program chairman. Mrs. William Hall reported on the progress being made by her committee on the annual musical scholarship tea, sponsored by the Harbor Councils and planned for Dec. 1 at Cabrillo Street school, San Pedro. Twenty boys and girls in 10th District schools will be given scholarships.

Mrs. John Scofield's talk on the current membership drive and announcement of the poster drive scheduled for Nov. 17 followed. The importance of association goals was explained by Mrs. O. I. Johnson. Program outlines were presented by presidents of the 11 schools represented at the meet. Announcement was made of at least four paper drives to be held during the year.

The program was concluded by an inspiring talk on War Chest and its importance was given by Dr. Leo Athans.

BARBARA STANTON
AT FIRST BIRTHDAY

The first birthday of Barbara Lynn Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stanton, of 1524 W. 216th st., was the occasion for a gala party last Thursday afternoon. A decorated birthday cake, individual cakes, ice cream and punch were served following the presentation of many lovely gifts for the baby. Those present were Joyce Roloff, Paul Wright, Jackie Smith, Jane Rowe, Genevieve Pisel, Connie Sloat, Tommie Shepherd, all of Torrance; Marsha Lorenz of Long Beach, Barbara's grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Stanton of Lomita; Miss Mildred Richhart of Torrance and the children's mothers.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Torrance Chapter, No. 44, Women of the Moose, is sponsoring a gala Halloween dance to be held at Moose Hall, 1951 Carson st., at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Oct. 31. Ila Mae Ambach, chairman, states that tickets at $1.00 each are now on sale. Door prizes will be awarded and there will also be prizes for the best costumes. It is not compulsory to wear costumes.

Signed: Eva Mae MacArthur, Publicity Chairman.

CATHOLIC PARTY
THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this evening's Catholic ladies' card party are Mrs. Sullivan and her committee, Mmes. Hussey, Miller, Crossmeyer, Benstead, Dodd, Cassidy, Clark, Driscoll, Cockhill and Hunt. Everyone is cordially invited. The first door prize will be presented at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinocle and 500 will begin immediately. Refreshments will be served.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH GROUP
PLANS BAZAAR, DINNER

Tuesday, Oct. 24, has been set as the date for First Christian church annual dinner and bazaar. Members of the Loyal Bible Class will sponsor the bazaar, which will begin at 1 o'clock, and Berean Sunday School Class will have charge of the dinner, to be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited.

W.C.T.U. MEMBERS TO MEET TUESDAY

Mrs. Ruth Gates will speak on "Literature and Religious Education" at the meeting of the W.C.T.U. at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 17, at First Baptist church. Mrs. Gates will have samples of literature and books and will be presented by Mrs. Joseph Calhoun, chairman of literature. Mrs. Opal Penner, president, will conduct the business meeting. Church school teachers and assistants are urged to attend.

LORITA BAKER VALLEY
BEGINS LECTURE SERIES

A clear picture of the present campaign with labor for the first time playing a prominent part, will be given in the light of political history by Mrs. Lorita Baker Valley in her review of world affairs at Assistance League headquarters, 732 Pacific ave., San Pedro, Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 10:45 a.m.

On the war front, Mrs. Valley will confine her commentary to the world significant events of the European front, leaving the Pacific area for later months. "Main emphasis of the entire talk," she declares, however, "will be the war which starts the day the peace is signed—a war of readjustments of old differences and new changes."

Three books of tremendous interest to world politics as well as America's new role of world leadership will be reviewed—"The Time for Decision," by Sumner Wells; "The Road to Foreign Policy," by Hugh Gibson, and "U. S. War Aims," by Walter Lippman.

Tickets may be secured at the door. Season tickets are available. The usual coffee hour will follow.

STANDIFER HOME IS PARTY SETTING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Standifer at 1731 Greenwood ave. was the setting for a buffet supper party recently, when they entertained members of the Cost Department personnel of Proctor and Gamble's Long Beach office. The guests were Marie Heaton, Charlotte Smith, Thelma Owens, Dorothy Miller, Florence Judson, Anna Smith, E. Taylor, Merrill Smith, all of Long Beach; Helen Weir of Torrance and the hosts' son, Jimmy. Dancing, ping pong and pool were the evening's diversion.

COLORED YARN IS NEEDED FOR AFGHANS

Mrs. Helen Burgeon, teacher at Torrance Elementary Development Center, is asking contributions of colored yarn, even small pieces, to be used by her pupils in making afghans for convalescents. The afghans, which will be made on loomettes, will later be presented to Torrance Branch American Red Cross, who will distribute them. Credit for the project will go to Junior Red Cross.

Lieut. Fitzgerald
Exchanges Vows
In A.A.F. Chapel

In a double ring ceremony performed Oct. 1 at Enid Army Air Field chapel, Enid, Okla., Miss Mary Helen Hein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hein of Fairview, Okla., became the bride of First Lieut. Thomas A. Fitzgerald, U.S.A.A.F.

Miss Lillian Jarolin was the bridesmaid; Lieut. Philip J. Neary attended the bridegroom and little Carolyn Sue White was flower girl. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fitzgerald of 2103 235th st., Lieut. Fitzgerald recently returned from the European theatre of operations, where he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters and the Presidential Unit Citation.

Lieut. and Mrs. Fitzgerald are visiting with the bridegroom's parents in Lomita. He will soon report at A.A.F. Redistribution Center, Santa Monica.

The Chic New PILLOX
$8.95

This is the creation of the year—and here you will find its smartest expression.

RAY-NEL
MILLINERY
Upstairs at 1337 El Prado

TINY-TYKE NEWS

for...

YOUNG MEN
OVERCOATS

Good looking herringbone weaves cut to a pattern like dad's. Just the kind the young fellows like... and mothers, too! Warm and long wearing. Sizes run from 2 to 8.

OVERALLS

Practical bib styles in heavy blue rib materials that will take the hard knocks of hard play of young men. A remarkable value... and you can take your pick in sizes from 2 to 8. See them!

THE FRIENDLY KIDDIES' STORE—EAGER TO SERVE

TINY-TYKE SHOP

1315 El Prado Torrance