

SCOUT JAMBOREE, CIRCUS WILL BE ANNUAL EVENT; FIRST AFFAIR SUCCESS

Torrance's First Annual Invitational Boy Scout Circus and Jamboree was such a success that the Merchants Division of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce have concluded that it will be an annual event, according to Hillman R. Lee, chairman of both the merchants division and the Harbor District Scouting Council.

The all-day affair held last Saturday attracted several hundred Scouts and Cubs from throughout the harbor district to participate in more than a score of events featuring the work of Scouting.

While the attendance was not as great as anticipated, according to Harry B. Lewis, secretary of the merchants division and vice chairman of the Harbor District Scout Council, the interest shown by the Scouts indicated that they will go back to their troops with such enthusiasm that they will have a full attendance next year.

Assisting in the affairs of the day, including the conduct of various contests and exhibits, were:

General Hays Praises Local Radio Broadcast

Brig. Gen. Ray W. Hays, the adjutant general of California, was high in his praise of the recent radio broadcast of the Peace Officers Civil Service Association of California on which officers and men of the 9th Tactical Command and 2nd Battalion of the California State Guard were guests, according to Police Chief John Strohm, president of the association.

General Hays expressed his personal compliments to Chief Strohm at the conference of Peace Officers Association of California, held in Fresno Oct. 9 to 11. The general addressed the convention on the relationship between law enforcement agencies and the State Guard, which had been the subject of the broadcast over KPAS, Pasadena, on Oct. 3, and he told Chief Strohm that he had received many favorable comments in Northern California on the broadcast. General Hays expressed the desire that additional broadcasts be presented, and complimented Col. John C. French, commander of the 9th Tactical Command of the State Guard, and Maj. A. Milton Fish, commanding the 2nd Battalion, for their work.

"General Hays said that Southern California is far ahead of Northern California in State Guard work," Chief Strohm said. "Major Fish's work won high commendation."

On the radio broadcast, prepared by Lt. Frank S. Selover, city editor of the Torrance Herald and public relations and signal officer of the 2nd Battalion, were Chief Strohm, Mayor W. H. Tolson, Capt. R. L. Lewellen, commanding company H, Torrance, as well as Col. French and Major Fish and other officers.

Ceiling Prices On Motorcycles

Motor cyclists who are looking for a new steed should check carefully the ceiling price of their favorite means of locomotion before purchase, the Office of Price Administration today.

Effective Oct. 11, OPA has set a flat price of $500 for shaft-driven motorcycles offered for sale through U. S. Treasury Department disposal agencies. This price applies through the eighth OPA region which includes California and other Pacific Coast states.

COMMANDER . . . Col. Stanley W. Matthews, MC regular Army medical officer who recently assumed command of Torrance Army hospital. High in his praise of Torrance, the hospital and its staff, Col. Matthews comes to Torrance after duty overseas at a general hospital in England. (Torrance Herald photo)

Born in Rocky Mount, N. C., Feb. 10, 1897, Colonel Matthews received his early education in the public schools of North Carolina. He took his pre-medical course at North Carolina State College at Raleigh, N. C., and at St. John's College at Annapolis, Md. He graduated from the medical school, University of Maryland, with an M.D. in 1921 and served his internship at St. Vincent's Infant's Asylum and residency at Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore.

Colonel Matthews engaged in private practice in Baltimore and taught at the University of Maryland prior to coming into the service. He was a member of enlisted reserve in the last war, a member of the 104th Medical Regiment prior to regular army, in the National Guard, and entered the regular army in January, 1925.

He was first stationed at Walter Reed General Hospital at Washington, D. C., graduated from the Army Medical School and also the Medical Field Service School at Carlisle, Pa., in 1926 and returned to Walter Reed for duty. He went in 1927 to the Canal Zone, Gorges Hospital, and Port Amador at Corozal and returned to the states in 1930. He served at Fort Benning and went in 1936 to Fort Snelling, Minn.; in 1939 to Walter Reed, and then temporary duty at Fort Jackson, N. C. He returned to Walter Reed in June, 1940, and returned after six weeks to Fort Jackson for permanent station and remained there until 1942, when he was ordered to Fort Ord, Calif., July, 1942, with 92nd Evacuation Hospital, then to the desert and stayed there until May of 1943. He returned to Camp Ellis, Ill., to the 68th General Hospital; to Fort Bragg for advanced training, and then the unit went to England. He came back to this country as a patient.

His hobby is photography. He is married to Mrs. Roberta S. Matthews, whose home is in Pittsburgh, Pa., who also likes photography and whose interest is being with her husband.

Colonel Matthews specialized in surgery and was chief of surgery at Fort Jackson, chief of surgical section at Fort Benning. He is a Fellow in the American College of Surgeons; member of American Medical Association and Southern Medical Association and Association of Military Surgeons; member of Phi Sigma Kappa, social fraternity, and Phi Rho Sigma, medical fraternity.

After the present war, his plans will be to stay with the regular army, this being his first love.

FOR AGONIZING BACKACHE WE RECOMMEND DI-URIFORM

Such symptoms as backache, painful passage, swelling ankles, often come from non-organic disorders of the urinary tract, outside of the kidneys themselves. In such cases, merely flushing the kidneys is not enough. You need the powerful 3-way action afforded by DI-URIFORM. Di-Uniform not only flushes kidneys, but also acts as a sedative to soothe irritated tissues. A liquid medicine, prepared principally from fresh plant juices, Di-Uniform goes right to work to bring you quick relief. Sold on a money-back guarantee. Di-Uniform is a safe Hyland's Home Remedy. 6 oz. Bottle. $1.00
