Col. Matthews Will Address Rotary Club

Col. Stanley W. Matthews, commanding officer of Torrance Army hospital, will address Torrance Rotary club tonight at its weekly meeting in Guild hall on the subject, "What Torrance Means to the Army Hospital and What the Army Hospital Means to Torrance."

Also a guest at the meeting will be Lt. Robert Ecton, service officer at the Army hospital. Program chairman is George Chapman.

Rev. H. W. Roloff Is Awarded His Master's Degree

In colorful academic ceremonies, the fall convocation of the 62nd annual commencement of the University of Southern California, to be held in Bovard auditorium of the campus on Oct. 22, will include H. Wesley Roloff, 1543 Marcelina ave., Torrance, earning the degree of Master of Theology.

Among the 250 graduates are 25 seniors of the university's

Naval V-12 program who have been assigned for specialized training at various midshipmen schools in the east as candidates for the rank of ensigns. They will be joined by 190 others who have completed their basic studies at S.C.

Following the cap and gown procession across the campus the graduates will take part in ceremonies to be conducted by President Rufus B. von Klein Smid.

The local pastor was presented to the president of the university, Dr. Rufus B. von Klein Smid, by Dr. Robert Taylor, dean of the graduate school of religion.

Previously the Rev. Mr. Roloff had been honored by election to Phi Chi Phi, national religious fraternity recognizing outstanding scholastic achievement and notable service to the social and spiritual life of the various schools.

Roloff was the only candidate receiving the scarlet trimmed hood signifying the completion of graduate studies in theology. Undergraduate studies of the pastor were completed in 1937 with the conferring of the A.B. degree from Seattle Pacific College. Other studies were pursued at the Portland Bible Insti-

Townsend Club No. 1

By LOTTIE WADE

Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will have a Halloween party on Friday night, Oct. 27, 1944, to which the public is invited. It is desirous that everyone come in some kind of a costume and Halloween colors. Also a mask if possible. There will be entertainment of songs, reading and vaudeville skit. The refreshments will be pumpkin pie and coffee. Dancing will follow. The social on Oct. 20 was well attended considering the gasoline situation. There were games with prizes for high scores, also door prize. The refreshments were delicious salad, crackers and coffee. Dancing filled the remainder of the evening. The donation from Club No. 1 to the War Chest was $5.00 instead of $2.00 as previously printed in the Herald.
