GOVERNOR JOHN BRICKER

DEWEY AND BRICKER

Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Governor John Bricker are an inspiring pair of men. Young, aggressive, of ability that has already been proven. Admittedly one is the equal of the other. Either can take over the reins of government or the duties of the other at a moment's notice. They are a real team. They are the type of men that it is easy to follow. Their records immediately inspire confidence. Confidence that all will be treated fairly and impartially, no matter what color, race or creed.

Governor Dewey's record as governor of New York State has been unexcelled. His choice of key personnel must meet the closest scrutiny. His key men must pass rigid tests for qualification before they assume their duties. Their records are investigated as closely as if by the methods used by the F. B. I. Specific duties are assigned to each and he is given authority to act. Departments do not overlap, therefore there is no quarreling or bickering. This instills complete confidence in the minds of the public. This same system of picking and choosing men for key positions will be adhered to. Complete confidence on the part of the public is most essential.

Devious restrictions and regimentation of matters pertaining to every day life will be eliminated. Needless exploiting of the everyday lives of the public will be stopped and confidence restored. Business, labor, farmers, housewives, professional men and women are badly in need of an inspiring, safe and sane leadership of the affairs of the nation. Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Governor John Bricker will bring to the nation that which is most needed . . . CONFIDENCE.
