PILOT . . . Lieut. V. E. Newman, shown in a recent portrait with his beautiful wife, is stationed in India where he makes frequent flights to China and South Pacific islands. Receiving his wings at Douglas Field, Ariz., last March, he remained there as an instructor until June when he was transferred to Long Beach Air Field and the Ferry Command. In September he ferried a C-47 supply ship to India via Porto Rico, Brazil and Africa. Newman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Newman of 1001-B Sartori ave.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON AT LAUGHON HOME

The home of Mrs. W. I. Laughon on El Prado was an attractive setting for a bridge club luncheon Thursday afternoon. At the luncheon table, set for eight guests, an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums was the centerpiece. The ladies adjourned to their hostess's new patio for bridge play. Meses R. J. Rogers and E. A. Miles were presented with prizes for contract.

METHODIST CIRCLE TO MEET NOV. 29

Lola Mae Tomkins will entertain members and friends of Circle No. 1 of Women's Society of Christian Service as her luncheon guests at noon Wednesday, Nov. 29. At the business meeting following election of officers and other important business will be transacted. Mrs. Hilda Findley will have charge of devotions.

LORITA BAKER VALLEY IN FINAL 1944 PROGRAM

Horace Greeley's famous admonition, "Go West, Young Man, Go West," is as timely as ever, according to Lorita Baker Valley, who pointed out the new frontiers to be open to American development in Asia after the war when she discussed World Affairs and Current Literature at the Assistance League headquarters, 732 Pacific ave., San Pedro, Tuesday morning, Nov. 21.

Dangers of totalitarianism were also brought out by this distinguished commentator. Mrs. Valley leaves soon for New York and Washington, where she will spend the month of December.

The following books were reviewed by her during November:

"So Sorry, No Peace," Royal Arch. Gunnison; "Treaty Ports," Hallett Ahens; "Still Time to Die," Jack Belden; "One Damn Thing After Another," Tom Treanor; "Your Kids and Mine," Joe E. Brown; "The Dream of Philip II," Edgar Maass; "The World of Washington Irving," Van Wyck Brooks; "None But a Mule," Barbara Woolcott; "Lusty Wind for Carolina," Ingils Fletcher; "Forever Amber," Kathleen Winsor; "Immortal Wife," Irving Stone; "By Valour and Arms," James Street; "Hard Facts," Howard Spring; "Blaze Allan," Lillian Ross; "Some of My Best Friends Are Soldiers," Margaret Halsey.

KEYSTONE WOMAN'S CLUB HAS NOVEMBER MEET

The November meeting of the Woman's Club of Keystone was both enjoyable and informative. Mrs. Clara Steck assisted Dr. Ethel White in serving luncheon. Mrs. Charles Christiansen presided. Miss Lillian McQuitty, chairman of the county federation committee, discussed California business and protective law as it affects women and children. A panel discussion led to homestead law, insurance and wills, which the speaker promised to discuss on a return visit in the near future. Federation Day, Nov. 29, the fifth Wednesday, will be observed with the usual session from 11 until 3 o'clock. Chairmen's reports, Red Cross and service hospital sewing will be featured. Plans for forthcoming club activities will be formulated. Mrs. Clara Steck, federation secretary, will be in charge of the meeting arrangements.

CORNELLIA CLUB MEETS AT LAUGHON HOME

Cornelia Club members were delightfully entertained at luncheon and bridge Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. I. Laughon. Yellow button chrysanthemums were used for the table centerpiece and in the living room arrangements of white blossoms enhanced the party setting. A brief business session was conducted by Mrs. M. N. Felker.

CUB MEETING POSTPONED TO FRIDAY, DEC. 1

Cub Pack 228-c, sponsored by the Methodist church, will not meet this Friday, as regularly scheduled, but will meet instead the following Friday, Dec. 1. The theme of the meeting then will be "What I Want to Be."

Hollomon-Webb Rites are Read In Nevada City

In a ceremony performed Nov. 9 at Las Vegas, Nev., Miss Doris May Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Webb of 1952 Plaza Del Amo, became the bride of Roy Vaughn Hollomon, Jr., United States Navy.

Rev. F. C. Lovett performed the rites at the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Las Vegas, where Miss Helen Carlson served as the bridesmaid and Velko Miletich, U.S.N., was the bridegroom's attendant. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cates of this city were also present.

The bride was attired in a light blue suit with contrasting accessories complemented by a corsage of orchids and Miss Carlson wore dusty rose and a gardenia corsage. Her husband, a gunner's mate, second class, who arrived early this month for a leave from Pacific duty, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hollomon of Crenshaw blvd.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollomon left Monday for San Francisco, where he will complete a seven weeks' training course before he reports for reassignment. Mrs. Hollomon will reside with her parents while her husband is on active duty.

ENGAGED . . . Miss Lucille Smith, whose engagement to Mr. Ben D. Bowen, United States Navy, was announced recently, when her mother, Mrs. G. D. Bartlett, entertained at a dinner party at their home, 1012 Milton ave., for relatives and intimate friends of the bride-elect, including Mrs. Emogene Hilton, the Misses Diane Licht and Lorene and Maureen Smith, and Larry Licht. Miss Smith's fiancé, a coxswain, who is enjoying a 30 days' leave from duty in the Pacific, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bowen of 2715 21st st., Long Beach, and formerly of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

H. H. SCHOOLEYS AT ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Andersen were dinner hosts at a Los Angeles cafe when they entertained recently for Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Schooley. The occasion was the Schooleys' tenth wedding anniversary and Mrs. Andersen's birthday.

On the following day a barbecue dinner was enjoyed at the Schooley home, 2517 El Dorado, by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cox and Joan and Mr. and Mrs. William Shannon, all of Los Angeles, and Marlene Schooley. They were later joined by Mr. and Mrs. James P. Fluhrer and Jimmy of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moon of Compton. A decorated cake was cut and many gifts were presented.

THEY MAKE IT EASIER FOR YOU . . . These volunteers of Torrance War Price and Ration Board staff each have put in more than 500 hours of free service for the convenience of you and me, and thousands of others who look to the board for rations of one form or another. There always is need for more volunteer workers despite the generous giving of time of this trio and many others, according to Lloyd Green, chief clerk of the Torrance board. Snapped on their way to the ration board for another session they are, left to right, Mrs. Eli Kuhn, 2305 241st st., Lomita, volunteer since December, 1942; Mrs. Gale Whitacre, 2163 233rd st., who started her volunteer work in March, 1943, and Mrs. H. E. Keller, wife of the manager of the local Alcoa plant, who now resides at 408 So. Oxford, Los Angeles, but still keeps up the good work. She started her volunteer work in December, 1942. Another 500-hour volunteer; Mrs. C. J. Ryan, is not shown in picture, illness preventing. She resides at 1404 W. 218th st., Torrance.—(Torrance Herald photo)
