

POLICE ARREST 10 MEN WITH AMMOTH HAUL

The loot included in addition to the two automobiles the following:

Six tires, seven inner tubes, $180 stolen from the Batschman.
Three shotguns.
Two .22 rifles.
Seven pistols of various sizes, including antique.
One air gun.
One razor.
Two watches.
One string of pearls.
Fifteen fountain pens and pen.

One notary seal.
One camera.
One radio.
One electric clock.
Cigars, tobacco.
Various sizes of ammunition valued at more than 1,000 and three suitcases filled with.

One of the cars, a Packard sedan, had been stolen from a garage in Redondo Beach. The building of Davis Shelby, 1401 Lomita Blvd., was allegedly used by the men with tires, and gas stamps taken, and made the basis of one of the glary charges.

Rhodes and Behney had been living with friends on Western in Harbor City. Rhodes, discharged at Fort Dix on Oct. 11 with character of "very good," not the usual "excellent" ordered most men honorably discharged from the service.

While Chief of Police John J. held the men in custody, the departments from throughout the south, the sheriff's office and the F.B.I. were checking the loot in an endeavor to claim on the two men.

The men were arraigned on counts, three of burglary one of grand theft, yesterday before City Judge Otto B. Ball was fixed at $10,000 each, and they are being held in the preliminary detention unit will be held Monday City Court.

Meanwhile, requests for holds come from police authorities in Kansas, Arizona and other states, and the F.B.I. work on charges that the transported concealed weapons across state lines, a federal offense. Rhodes had a prior conviction against his record, of burglary in the east before he entered the army, Chief said.

SENIOR WILL HONOR FOOTBALL PLAYERS
To honor members of the Torrance high varsity football team their parents will entertain at an informal dinner at 7:30 Friday evening, Nov. 3, at Civic Auditorium.

First Vet Reinstatement Plea Made

The first discharged service man to apply for reinstatement in a city job is Fred W. Ernst, senior street maintenance man, who Tuesday night asked the City Council to grant him his seniority. The council referred the matter to the Civil Service Commission, although the council is required under law to reinstate the man to his former job with full seniority. Meanwhile, Ernst is working for the city.

M. G. Stark was hired as a temporary mechanic at the city garage at $225 a month.

R. A. Tarwater was hired as a laborer at $170 a month.

A. K. Hill was granted full patrolman's pay of $210 a month, having completed his probationary period.

Emma Middleton was hired as an assistant in the Recreation Center at 65 cents per hour, to take the place of Mrs. Florence Hall, who has been ill.

Marjorie Lane was named to the Torrance Library board of trustees to take the place of Juanita Thompson, who has left the city.

Philip Jensen, Ship Master

Com. Philip Jensen, who has earned his master's papers in the Merchant Marine, has been visiting relatives and friends in Torrance for the past week or so, awaiting assignment by the American-Hawaiian line.

Com. Jensen, the husband of the former Maxine Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Steele, 1320 Cota ave., graduated in 1939 as a third mate, and has continued his climb up the mariner's ladder since that time until in January, 1944, he received his master's papers. He has been serving as chief mate with the American-Hawaiian lines, but soon expects to get his assignment as a master of a ship.

Com. Jensen has made five trips across the Atlantic ocean on C-4, Liberties and "Rust Pots" as the old pre-war ships are known, and the first rocket bomb fired by the Nazis at London flew over his ship while at sea. He took part in the "D" day invasion. He also saw action in the South Pacific at Guadalcanal.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jensen, and is a graduate and former student body president at Torrance High school, year of 1936. He was on the championship 1935 football team, playing left guard.

ADVANCED . . . Robert R. Smith, son of Mrs. May Smith of 1423 Post ave., has been advanced to seaman, 1/c, at Camp Bradford, Va., where he is serving with the Navy Fire Dept. His wife, Doris, and their daughter Sandra are with him. His mother has just returned from a three months' visit in Virginia where she spent some time with him.

TARBABES ARE MARINE GRID CHAMPIONS

rushed on his kick, and it only went for two yards. Gardena took over for four yards in three plays, so they kicked. Short gains by Bennett and George and a pass to Bill Johnson netted a first down. On the following play we lost six yards and had to punt. Safetyman Gene Simmons fumbled, and Walt Hillier recovered for Torrance, but on the second play the Tarbabes fumbled and Gardena took over again. Then after an exchange of punts, Doug Bodner intercepted a Gardena pass, and ran it back 31 yards. After a long loss Gardena again took over. They began to pass, and after two incompletes, Bennett intercepted a pass to set up the touchdown. Two passes to Johnson, and in to Leroy Schwenk made 38 yards. Then one more pass from Ralph George to Schwenk netted six points. The conversion attempt was no good. The kick off ended the half.

The second half began with the Tarbabes all fired up. Torrance kicked off. Gardena took the ball for three very short gains, and kicked to Tarbabe, who went straight down the field to score, which was made by Bennett through center. The conversion was no good. Torrance again kicked off, and after three plays, Gil Bennett blocked the Gardena punt, and we took over. The score was made by the same method as the second score. Namely runs by Bennett and George, and passes to Johnson. Bud Smith again kicked off for the Tarbabes.

The Gardena team finally scored and three plays after the kick off, the game ended with the Tarbabes victors for the day and season.

Substitutes—Torrance: Henson, Comstock, Sullivan, McLeod, Jarratt, Turner, Stirling, Gardena: Swindle, McLung, Meners. The Tarbabes season ran: Torrance 0, Gardena 7 on a long end run by Carmichael. Torrance 0, San Pedro 0, in a hard fought, closely contested game. Torrance 13, Narbonne 6, in a traditional rivalry. The next week Torrance drew a bye, and Pedro set up our championship by defeating Gardena. Torrance defeated Banning—with the Tarbabes coming from behind in the last half. Torrance 13, Pedro 7 with Torrance again winning after being behind in the first half. Torrance 18, Gardena 6, which gave us the championship.

Marine League "B" Standing
W L T Pts. Opp
