TORRANCE MAN NATURALIZED... Naturalization of an American citizen under any circumstances is noteworthy. But when foreign-born G.I.s, already pledged to protect the flag of the United States in battle are sworn to citizenship in the South Pacific Base Command, headed by Major General Frederick Gilbreath, the democratic concept of men who fight for what they hold dear takes on a special meaning. Here Private First Class Gavino P. Banda, Torrance, Cal., who came to the United States in March, 1927, from Juchipila, Mexico, is shown being sworn by Dr. Henry B. Hazard, Philadelphia, Pa., representative of the Department of Justice's Immigration and Naturalization Service, who has traveled close to front lines over the world to perform his duty. Private Banda, who worked for the Columbia Steel Company, Torrance, prior to entering the Army July 12, 1943, began overseas duty Feb. 12, 1944, and is entitled to wear the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon. He is assigned to an infantry division as a rifleman. His wife is the former Sally Pinon.

Townsend Club No. 1

By LOTTIE WADE
Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will hold their birthday party on Friday evening, Dec. 1, to honor all those whose birthdays occur in either October, November or December. There will be the usual birthday table and the birthday cake. Games will be played with prizes for highest scores. Also, a door prize will be given. After the refreshments dancing will follow. The Thanksgiving party on Nov. 24 was attended by a nice crowd, who enjoyed the creamed chicken on toast which the ladies so generously provided. Games were played, prizes awarded and dancing filled the remainder of the evening. We were glad to have Mrs. Sellers with us after her absence by recent illness.

W. P. Agapito, Who Heard Japanese Broadcast Clearly on Tarawa, Says Voice on Radio Was Lt. Zamperini's

Comfort from as far away as Tarawa has come to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zamperini and family, as a result of the recent Japanese broadcast in which the "Postman Calling" claimed to have put Lt. Louis Zamperini, son of the Zamperinis on the radio to reassure them of the fact that he is not dead, but a prisoner of war of the Japanese.

Latest of many letters received is one from W. P. Agapito, WT 3/c, who wrote to the Zamperinis on Nov. 29 that he had heard the broadcast clearly on Tarawa, and that he knew it was Louis' voice on the Japanese radio.

While the Japanese station on Friday night, Nov. 24, regretted that the broadcast did not get clear reception here, Agapito wrote a similar letter to his sister, Mrs. Frank Schmidt. The Zamperini letter from Agapito was received Nov. 25.

Agapito's letter is quoted as follows:

"Nov. 20, 1944
"Torrance"

"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Zamperini: I'm dropping a few lines to let you know I had the pleasure of listening to your son's voice when I went to school, and was more than glad to hear that he is still alive."

"The other day I read in our island paper that Louie was given up for dead, so you can imagine my surprise when the Jap announcer said that Lt. Louis was to speak and was very much alive, over the program, 'Post Man Calling.'"

"Knowing that it was midnight in the states I didn't think that you heard the program. I remember him mentioning the names of his sisters and also Pete that is in San Diego, and also the good pies that his mother baked. Then he said for his dad to keep his guns in good shape so he could do some hunting when he gets back. He also mentioned about some of the boys that he ran across in Japan that he knew."

"He wished you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and hoped to be with you soon."

"Gee, I sure wish that I could have picked up a phone and told you the news but this is the only way I can let you know."
