Duke-Walls Rites
Read Saturday
At Beach Chapel

In a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at Normandy Chapel, Long Beach, Mary Ada Walls, a corporal serving with United States Marine Corps, Women's Reserve, became the bride of Cpl. Clifford Lee Duke, Jr., U.S.M.C. Air Forces. Dr. William C. Hodgson, of Belmont Methodist church, officiated in the presence of the families and intimate friends of the principals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in her dress uniform and carried a white orchid prayer book corsage. Mrs. William Nunn, wearing a green suit complemented by a gardenia and pink rosebud corsage, attended the bride. George O. Walls, brother of the bride, was the bridegroom's attendant.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Cunningham at 2616 E. First st., where a tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature Marine bride and groom centered a lace covered table adorned with sweet peas and tall white tapers. Mrs. George A. Arterburn, sister of Mrs. Cunningham, poured.

Later the couple left for a three-day honeymoon at Laguna Beach.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar W. Walls of 1727 Martina ave., attended Torrance high school and University of California at Los Angeles before entering service. Her husband, a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Duke, Sr., of Whittier, had recently returned from 19 months' service in the South Pacific where he served as an aerial gunner. He was a journalism student in his second year at University of Texas before he entered service.

CATHOLIC GROUP
OUTLINES ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Mary Boynton, grand regent of Catholic Daughters of America, conducted the regular business meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 6 at St. James Hall, Redondo Beach.

A communication from the War Council regarding disease prevention week told of the availability of informed speakers during the month of February. The court decided to secure a speaker for Tuesday, Feb. 20. This address will be in St. James Hall, Redondo, at 8:30 p. m., preceded by a pot luck dinner at 6:30 p. m. The committee for the evening will be Mrs. Mary Colmer, chairman; Mrs. Josephine Puetz, Mrs. Doris Burnall and Miss Catherine Cahill.

A sewing group will meet at the home of Mrs. Dorcas Douglas, 618 Beryl st., Redondo Beach on Tuesday, Feb. 15 at 2 p. m. to make new dish towels for the court.

The Catholic Daughter of America Communion Day will be Feb. 25 with breakfast to be served in St. James Hall, following the 8 o'clock mass. April 15 was selected for the initiation and all interested Catholic women may still secure application blanks from members.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

ST. CECILIA'S GUILD
AT VALENTINE PARTY

Members and guests of St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church were delightfully entertained Wednesday evening of last week at a gala bridge party at St. Andrew's Guild Hall. Lighted red candles created an effective background decoration and were later used to center the tables where dainty refreshments were served. Prize winners at contract included Mmes. A. H. Silligo and W. J. Neelands.

P.T.A. Groups at Joint Meeting Here
Monday Afternoon

A splendid attendance marked the first joint meeting of Torrance High School, Fern Avenue and Torrance Elementary P. T. A. when Founder's Day was celebrated Monday at the high school.

Mrs. L. F. Watson, high school president, greeted the mothers and teachers present, and introduced Olin Hoyt, counselor of Torrance high who extended a welcome on behalf of the school. The pledge of allegiance to the flag was led by Mrs. Ted Covert, Fern Avenue president, and an inspirational reading was given by the elementary president, Mrs. R. R. Perry, both of whom also assisted Mrs. Watson conduct the meeting.

A highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of four honorary life memberships, thus swelling the state's, involving Student Loan Fund by $100.00. Mrs. George Leech, of Fern Avenue, received her pin from Mrs. Earl Robinson who told of Mrs. Leech's faithful work as hospitality and ways and means chairman for her unit. Mrs. Perry made two presentations for the Elementary Association, the first to Miss Mary Liles, for a number of years a teacher of the third grade, and to Mrs. W. E. Bowen, junior past president, and for five years active board member of the association. The high school's life membership went to Mrs. William Tolson, wife of Torrance's mayor, in recognition of 19 years continuous service to P. T. A. Mrs. Tolson is at present treasurer of the high school unit.

Past presidents of each unit were introduced and presented corsages by tiny Doris Popovitch and Charlene St. Martin. They included Mrs. Tolson, Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. H. R. Lee of the Elementary, Mrs. J. J. Millard and Mrs. John Garner of Fern Avenue, and Mrs. Charles Woodcock and Mrs. W. H. Rojo of Torrance High. Life members likewise recognized were: Miss Elizabeth Parks, Miss Irene Mills, Miss Lovenia Boudnot, Mrs. A. C. Turner, Mrs. Joy Prime, and Mrs. Irene Davis Special guests were: Mrs. Robert Thompson, Gateway Council president; Mrs. M. C. Isaacson, Lomita-San Pedro Council president; Mrs. J. Anderson, Carson Street president, and Mrs. Mary Vonderahe, Woman's Page editor of the Torrance Herald.

The program was opened by two solos, "Songs My Mother Taught Me," and "My Hero," sung by Mrs. Luke Nichol, accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Babcock.

A Founder's Day pageant of three American wars directed by Mrs. Elizabeth MacKinnon delighted the audience with its reminiscent costumes and the hope for the future true victory which it emphasized. Between acts the Glee Club, directed by Miss Anna Mac Aiken, sang "Flag of Flags" and medleys of World Wars I and II songs.

The birthday donation dropped in a clever little red school house will be used in extending P. T. A. to yet unorganized areas. Decorated birthday cake was served at a lace covered table centered with yellow marguerites flanked by tall blue candles. Mrs. H. C. St. Martin and Mrs. John Grubb poured.

SHARON FELKER IS EIGHT, NOW
Sharon Felker's eighth birthday was the occasion for an attractively appointed children's party when Mrs. M. N. Felker entertained recently at their home, 1010 Beech ave.

A Valentine theme was followed and a decorated cake and other refreshments were served, following an afternoon of games. Sharon's guests were: Mary Schott, Mary Sue and Cynthia Easley, Diane Schumert, Sally Moore, Julie Rhone, Sandra Grubb, Nancy Zuver, Janice Moore, Jackie Pagac, Shirley Chapman, Barbara Hazzard, and Kay Shoemaker.

Meier-Jamison
Rites Are Read
In Eastern City

The wedding of Miss Berley Jamison, of Pittsburgh, Pa., to M. Theodore Meier, local Y. M. C. A. executive and son of the late Rev. Martin Meier, was solemnized Friday evening, Jan. 12, in the Epworth Euclid Methodist Cathedral church, Cleveland, with the Rev. Oscar Thomas Olson, officiating.

The ceremony was performed before the chancel banked with palms and cathedral candleabrum, entwined with white flowers, holding tall white tapers.

The full robed choir, of which both the bride and bridegroom were members, sang several selections assisted by Edwin H. Haskins, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owen, Jr., violinist and baritone soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by William P. Tyron, wore an ivory satin gown, fashioned with a full skirt and bishop sleeves of chiffon. Her fingertip veil was caught with orange blossoms and her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis tied with wide satin ribbon.

Miss Betty Speer, as maid of honor, was gowned in dusty rose fable tulle, made with a bouffant skirt. A Juliet cap with shoulder-length veil and a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas completed her ensemble. The other attendants, Mrs. Carl F. Gemlich and Mrs. James Mulgrew, wore identical gowns of aqua and carried similar colonial bouquets. Paul F. Meier of Toledo, was his brother's attendant and Rev. Paul Balliett, James Mulgrew and John Wirts of Cleveland ushered.

A program of piano music was enjoyed during the reception.

The bride attended the Cleveland Institute of Music and her husband was graduated from the University of Toledo and did graduate work in the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Meier will reside at 1415 Greenwood ave.
