

Pacific Waste And Salvage Co. Is Given Permit

Pacific Waste and Salvage Co., has been given a license by the City Council to establish a place of business at 1230 Torrance blvd., on the property formerly occupied by the Martin Stamping and Manufacturing Co.

Public Wedding At Moose Hall On Saturday

A public wedding will feature the meeting of the Torrance Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose on Saturday night at 10 o'clock. The happy couple will be Ralph G. Furinton, of 1106 El Prado, and Juanita Trosper. Judge Frank Carrell, of Gardena, will officiate.

Kiwanians to Sponsor Local Teen-Age Club

In the decision to take immediate action in the creation of a "Teen-Age Club" for the young folks of Torrance, the directors of the Torrance Kiwanis Club Monday night set in motion an active program for the realization of this long felt need. The plan is to secure the purchase, with the cooperation of the City of Torrance, of two large army barracks and erect them side by side with archways built between them. These are to be erected on a lot in the central business district which has been offered for the use of the club by Kiwanis Director Charles T. Rippey.

The building will be re-conditioned and outfitted completely by the Kiwanis Club along the lines which have proven most popular in other communities. This of course will include a "coke" bar and a juke box.

While the Kiwanis Club plans to continue its sponsorship of the new club, the actual management and operation, its rules and regulations will be given to a representative group of Torrance high school students.

The committee heading this activity is under the direction of Keith Jones. His committee

Commander Scott To Speak at Kiwanis Dinner

Commander A. W. Scott, formerly of the British Navy will be the guest speaker Monday evening at the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

His subject will be "A Graphic Picture of the War in the Pacific." Predicting that the speaker's discussion will prove beneficial for local members in evaluating news from the Pacific, the speaker said that he would draw upon past experiences to illustrate his lecture.

TAXI DENIED

On motion of Councilman G. V. Powell, the City Council Tuesday night denied a petition of Daniel Frohman for a permit to install a taxi stand at 1281 Sartori ave.

members are Dr. Howard Wood, Bernie Strand, Jhan Van Hiel and Chief of Police John Stroh.

Barber Shop Quartets to Be Revived Here

Warblers, grease your whistles! You are going to get that chance you have been waiting for.

The ancient Order of Barber Shop Quartets will live again, and Torrance males who want to get in on it should see City Attorney J. E. McCall, Superintendent of Recreation Dale Riley or Chick Curtiss.

A contest will be held in Torrance late next month or early April, and others in Wilmington Hall and San Pedro, to qualify for harbor district championship. A runoff at Dana high school will decide the contests. Sign up.

ASK FOR PLANS

The Regional Planning commission has asked the City Council for any plans or public works program for which it would seek county aid during the year 1945-46. The request was referred to City Engineer G. M. Jain.

Building Permits

Coast Insulating Co., has taken out a building permit to construct a 55x150 corrugated warehouse building at 401 Arlington ave. The structure will cost $8250.

Pacific Waste Products Co. will remodel 1230 Torrance blvd., quarters at a cost of $150. Joseph Miller has a permit to build a $250 addition at 2023 Border ave.; C. L. Beesley, a $500 garage at 2519 Carson st.; P. N. Vernon, a $700 addition at 3642 Emerald ave., and C. M. Gilbert a $400 addition at 1212 Fern ave.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS HOLD INITIATION

At the regular meeting of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters, held Tuesday evening at Masonic Temple, the following girls were initiated: Marlowe Rose, Connie Smith, Mary Schultz, Margaret Thomas, Erlene Simonson and Polly Leetz. The occasion marked the official visit of Miss Dana Gastrieh, deputy grand guardian. At the close of the evening refreshments were served in the banquet room. (Signed) Barbara Lock, Publicity Chairman.

Two Torrance Girls to Appear In Radio Numbers

Eunice Abramson and Nancy Ann Whyte, Torrance high school students, will play piano numbers on Radio KPAS, (1110 on your dial) this evening (Thursday) at 6 p. m. They are appearing on the "Pianists of the Future" program sponsored by Birkel Richardson Co., Los Angeles.

Miss Abramson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Abramson, will play "Clair de Lune" by Debussy; and Miss Whyte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, will play "Autumn" by Chaminade.

Both girls are pupils of Collette Nance, concert pianist and teacher.

ANDREO AVENUE

Repair of Andreo ave. was asked at the City Council meeting Tuesday night.
