Brothers' Night Is Observed at O.E.S. Meeting

Brothers' Night for members and guests of Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, was an enjoyable occasion last Thursday evening.

Frank Brown presided as worthy patron with Mrs. Naomi Brown, worthy matron, and Dr. O. E. Fossum and Jack E. Miller served as chairmen for the evening. Taking part in the initiatory work were Past Patrons Glenn Babcock, Wallace West, Roy Winters, Earl Babcock and Fred Bever, Hillman R. Lee, Ernest Tomkins, H. A. Lewis and Homer Morgan. At this time Mrs. M. A. Wright and Mrs. Ethel Vallerio were received into the order.

Visitors were from Michigan, and Indiana cities, Honolulu, Santa Barbara, San Francisco, Inglewood, San Pedro, Wilmington and from Playa Linda and Carnation chapters.

In true man style, the tables were decorated with vegetable centerpieces, newspapers were table cloths and the menu was served in reverse.

Dancing concluded the evening festivities. Mrs. Persia Fess was presented with a handsome blanket which was given away during the evening.

Job's Daughters will be honored at the next chapter meeting, Thursday evening, March 1.

LIEUT. KENNETH FESS AT BIRTHDAY FETE

On an eight days leave Lt. Kenneth B. Fess was honored Sunday evening at a supper party on the occasion of his birthday at the home of his wife's parents, Gen. Jesse Dyer, U. S. M. C. (retired) and Mrs. Dyer, Palos Verdes Estates. Covers were placed for the honor guest, his wife Marcia and their baby Marbeth; Mr. and Mrs. Neushalls and family of Redondo Beach; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fess of Torrance; Mrs. Rody Goudeau of Palos Verdes and Larry Keaton of Inglewood. Lt. Fess has now returned to Clovis, N. M. to await a new post appointment.

LUTHERAN CHURCH AT TAVAN HOME

Members of Rebekah Circle of First Lutheran church were entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Helen Tavan at her home. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ben F. Hannebrink, Sr. Mrs. Alice Guy presided at a brief business meeting and sewing for the Lutheran fall bazaar occupied the group for the balance of the evening. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Helen Miller, Alice Guy, Dorothy Mearling, Amanda Law, Roline Bever, Bernice Heckman, Helen Harris, Henry Kracht, Ben Hannebrink, Jr., and Ben Hannebrink, Jr.

GIRL SCOUTS REPORT RECENT ACTIVITIES

Girl Scout Troop No. 416 enjoyed a gala afternoon party last week. Refreshments and games followed the holiday motif and valentines were exchanged.

The group also reports an enjoyable hike to Palos Verdes where they were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Mary Baer and Mrs. W. J. Vernon. Several girls left early to make trail and others assisted with arrangements for lunch served to 16 at the conclusion of the hike, according to Joann Sandstrom, reporter. The troop mascot, "Puggy" was included on the hike, Joann states.

Mrs. Jamieson Reviews Books At Keystone Club

Members and guests of Woman's Club of Keystone were entertained at luncheon Wednesday afternoon of last week at their clubhouse, 127 East 220th st. The tables were beautifully decorated with narcissus and roses and Valentines were favors. Special luncheon guests were Mrs. Helen Zillgitt, Carson Street principal and her P.T.A. president, Mrs. Joyce Anderson; Miss Gladys Hanson, Rocha school principal and her P. T. A. president, Mrs. A. F. Berry, Jr. Miss Hanson invited social contact with the new residents of her district and Mrs. Zillgitt outlined the business meeting following will be conducted by Mrs. Marie Shanahan, chairman. Mrs. Annie Jones will give devotions. This circle is sponsoring the redecoration of the primary church school rooms. Strangers and new friends of the church in this district are cordially invited.

Mrs. Sexton introduced Mrs. Dorothy H. Jamieson, librarian, of Torrance, whose yearly book reviews are always pleasantly anticipated by the club. She first urged the reading of three books likely to clarify one's thinking on European problems: Hershey's A Bell for Adano, depicting the difficulty of administering liberated countries; Kessel's Army of Shadows and Karsky's Secret State, showing respectively the great risks of the French and Polish undergrounds.

For suspense and beauty of description, she reviewed Bellamy's Victoria Granddette; for plot and characterization, Coleridge, by Edith Pope. For men readers, chiefly, she recommended The Ghost Talks, by Chas. Michelson, political sketches on the cynical side. She gave an understanding commentary on Steinbeck's Cannery Row, and for sheer good humor recommended Anything Can Happen, by George and Helen Papashvily.

Following the program Mrs. Charles Christianson conducted a short business session, at which the club unanimously voted to sponsor the Keystone group of Campfire Girls, offering them the facilities of the clubhouse for their weekly meetings.

Chairmanships approved were: Mrs. Hubert Smith, handicraft; Anna Wilken, business and protective law.

Application for membership was received from Mrs. R. E. Shaffer, of Keystone, a club guest.

The next regular meeting, previously scheduled for the evening of March 14, will be held in the clubhouse on the afternoon of that day.

SERVICE MAN WEDS AT LOS ANGELES CHAPEL

Peggy Lou Atteberry became the bride of Staff Sgt. Adelbert Leroy Bernardi, in a ceremony performed Feb. 11 at a Los Angeles wedding chapel.

Given in marriage by Susan Rigante, the bride was attired in RAF blue with a corsage bouquet of gardenias and roses. Mrs. Betty Tierney of this city was her attendant. Staff Sgt. Pat Esposito, of L.A.P.D. Station hospital, Torrance, was the bridegroom's attendant.

Mrs. Bernardi is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Atteberry of Hermosa Beach and was graduated from Redondo Union high school. Her husband, stationed at Torrance L. A. P. E. hospital, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bernardi of Oakland. He was graduated from Oakland Technical high school and a business college.

Following a honeymoon in Oakland, the young couple will return to make their home near his base.

TORRANCE LADIES ATTEND L. A. PARTY

Mrs. Velora Murphy and Mrs. Irene Hopkins were recently entertained at an evening party at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Ann Sorenson. Club members were guests and Valentine appointments and decorations were used. A midnight supper followed card play and Mrs. Murphy was presented with a bridge award.

Spring Carnival Current Project Of Woman's Club

Bingo, with prizes; fortune telling, grab bags, fish ponds, white elephant booths and many other attractions will be features of Torrance Woman's Club spring carnival to be held at the clubhouse Saturday afternoon and evening, St. Patrick's Day, March 17, from 4:00 until 11:00 p. m.

At the informal luncheon meeting held yesterday afternoon at the clubhouse, the women reported progress being made with plans for the forthcoming affair and working materials were distributed to be made into useful and decorative handmade articles. Mrs. W. I. Laughon will open her home on El Prado next Tuesday for an all day meeting when the clubwomen will gather to work for their respective booths.

In addition to the above mentioned booths, there will be those selling home made candy, cooked foods, chili beans, de luxe hamburgers, etc. There also will be fancy work booth, where hand embroidered linens, aprons and other goods will be offered for sale. In addition there will be a book stall, with best sellers and other books. Clubwomen are asked to cooperate by contributing to the various departments.

R. C. A. F. OFFICERS VISIT IN TORRANCE

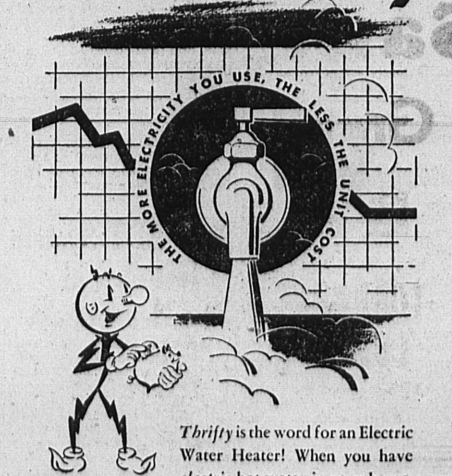

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Murray were recent hosts to Kenzie McMullin, a flight sergeant, serving with R. C. A. F. on 14 days leave from his base at Alberta, Canada. His home is in Sydney, N. S. McMullin was accompanied by Flight Sergeant William Bayne, R. C. A. F., formerly of Montreal. The boys report a wonderful time, visiting points of interest in Hollywood, Los Angeles and other Southern California cities.

CLUB MEMBERS MEET AT MRS. ASHLEY'S HOME

Mrs. J. R. Ashley was a gracious hostess to bridge club members who met at her home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jackson Moore was a club guest and prizes at contract were presented to Mesdames M. N. Folkes and J. W. Becman. Valentines were tallies and spring flowers centered the table where refreshments were served at the close of play.

Have electric
HOT WATER
in your home for Economy

Thrifty is the word for an Electric Water Heater! When you have electric hot water in your home, you get the benefit of a special Edison electric rate that makes the operating cost surprisingly low. You save in other ways, too. An Electric Water Heater gives trouble-free service and lasts for years. Add these economies to the completely automatic operation, dependability and cleanliness of an Electric Water Heater... and it's easy to see why so many families are planning to change to electric water heating as soon as new Electric Water Heaters are available.
