New Firm Votes Heavily to Join Dresser Company

More than 80 per cent of all stockholders of Day & Night Manufacturing Co., of Monrovia, Calif., have approved to date the exchange of Day & Night stock for that of Dresser Industries, Inc., William J. Bailey, Jr., president of Day & Night, announced today. Mr. Bailey said he expects the exchange to run between 97 and 98 per cent before the closing date April 2.

The transaction, contingent on acceptance of the Dresser offer by the holders of not less than 95 per cent of all Day & Night common shares, not less than 95 per cent of all Day & Night original preferred, and not less than 80 per cent of all shares of Day & Night, is on the following basis:

Day & Night stockholders receive one share of Dresser common stock for each five and one-tenth shares of Day & Night 6 per cent preferred; one share of Dresser common for each four and nine-tenths shares of Day & Night 7 per cent preferred, and one share of Dresser common for each three shares of Day & Night original preferred.

For each one share of Day & Night common, holders will receive one and one-tenth shares of Dresser common.

Under terms of the transaction, Day & Night will become a member of the Dresser group April 2. Other Dresser companies in California are Pacific Pumps, Inc., of Huntington Park, Payne Furnace & Supply Co., of Beverly Hills, Kobe, Inc., of Huntington Park and International Derrick & Equipment Co., of Torrance.

Acquisition of Day & Night, manufacturers of gas water and space heating and water cooling equipment, will bring to 13 the number of companies associated in the Dresser Industries family in the east and in California.
