Carlson-Schultz Nuptials Read at Lutheran Rites

In a beautiful setting at First Lutheran church Thursday evening, Miss Alice F. Schultz became the bride of Henry H. Carlson, Rev. F. D. Mehlhoff officiating in the presence of 150 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Michael Bossard, of Lynwood, the bride was beautifully attired in traditional white satin with fingertip veil draped from a pearl beaded coronet. A strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, completed her ensemble and she carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Miss Doris Schultz, as her sister's maid of honor, wore yellow net over satin and her flowers were roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids, the Misses Florence Schultz, sister of the bride, Frances Bortnorn and Florence Daniels, wore net gowns fashioned alike in pastel shades and they carried sweet peas. Roland Carlson was his brother's attendant.

Mrs. E. A. Schwartz played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for the soloist. A reception followed at the church parlors where a three-tiered cake was cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Irma Treize. Pouring were Misses Spaan, an aunt of the bride and Mrs. H. Glenn Babcock.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schultz, of Norfolk, Nebraska, has made her home for more than a year. Her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, of 1723 Andree ave.

Mrs. Schultz, who arrived for the wedding, received her guests in teal blue, complemented by a corsage of Tallman roses; Mrs. Carlson wore a blue costume and Tallman roses.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Balboa, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson will make their home in Lomita. Both are employed at Rubbercraft Corp., where he is a foreman.
