Service on Good Friday evening at 7:30, with Holy Communion

A cordial invitation to attend these services.

FOR generations before the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, the cross was an emblem of sorrow, pain, and death. After the glorious demonstration of Christ over this cross by His resurrection on Easter Day, it became, to those who believed, the symbol of life abundant and eternal.

Today, Christ, the great burden bearer, brings hope for the future . . . that all may know the peace that accompanies faith in Him. Accept His invitation, "Come unto Me all ye that are heavy laden and I will give you rest," by attending the church of your choice on Easter Day.
