Two-Hour Parking On Cravens; New Building Fees

Two-hour parking will be put into effect on Cravens ave. east of Gramercy ave., according to action taken by the City Council.

A uniform code of fixing valuations of building in Torrance, on which to base the fees charged for permits, was adopted Tuesday night. The city has been "losing" the benefit of higher building valuations under the present system which fixes valuations at some 50 percent lower than cost of construction, according to City Engineer G. M. Jain.

Senior Play Will Be Given On April 27

By ROBERT MAXFIELD

Torrance High school's summer class of 1945 is hard at work on the senior play. The play, "Seven Sisters," is a hilarious three-act Hungarian comedy and has been produced by high schools and little theater groups all over the country.

"Seven Sisters," is the story of the Gyurkovics family, Mrs. Gyurkovics and her seven daughters, and their humorous attempts to marry off the three older sisters. The entire action takes place in the dining room of the Widow Gyurkovics' home in a small garrison town not far from Budapest. The year is 1910.

The play will be given in the high school auditorium on April 27 at 8 p.m. Reserved seats will sell for 60 cents while general admission tickets will cost 45 cents. Tickets will be on sale at the Torrance Pharmacy and the high school student body store. General admission tickets may also be purchased at the box office on the night of performance.

The entire cast is composed of members of the senior class. The leads are Lieut. Harkov, played by Charles Duane, and Mitzi Gyurkovics played by Betty Goettsch and Barbara Fuller. Mrs. Gyurkovics is played by Bettie Johnson and Barbara Moyer while Jane Ritchie is cast as Katinka. Ella is played by Barbara Eynon and Eunice Abramson, Sori by Betty Fiesel. Bob Curry is cast in the role of Colonel Rodvinsky while Philip Lisman plays his nephew Baron Gida. Lieut. Sandorffy is played

The sets are being constructed under the guidance of Ralph Demmler, wood shop instructor and his stage craft class. The costume designing is under Miss Edith Allen of the art department.

Cub Pack Group Plans for Next Month's Events

The Walteria Cub Pack Committee, meeting at the home of the Earl Gipe, planned a program for the next three months including a kite flying contest, a skating party and the annual Cub Pack 240-C Carnival. Pack 240-C held its first carnival last year and it developed into such a successful affair that it was decided to hold a carnival each year to be open to the entire community. Those attending the meeting included, Mrs. Tom Britt, Den Mother; B. J. Michels, Joe Carter, committeemen, with Earl Gipe, acting chairman and Geo. P. Thatcher, Cubmaster.

MORE PARKING

To provide additional parking space for persons visiting the civic center as well as for county employees, the county Board of Supervisors has instructed County Manager A. H. Campion to work out plans for the grading of county owned property at Fort Moore Hill, north of the Hall of Justice.

Parents to Go To School for Open House

Torrance High school students will be hosts to their parents at an open house program, Tuesday, April 24, at 7:15 p.m., in honor of Public Schools Week. During a 15-minute day school period students will accompany their parents to their classes and later will adjourn to the library for a program and social hour.

E. M. Mosher, worshipful master Torrance Masonic Lodge and Harold E. Perry, high school principal, will speak.

ANTELOPE HUNTING

RECAP and RIDE

New tire allotments are reduced. Your chances for a new tire are slim. The best solution is to RECAP NOW. You get thick, new, safe tread on your worn tires. We use the B. F. GOODRICH METHOD. It's factory approved and mileage proved. NO RATION CERTIFICATE NEEDED. Let us counsel you on repairing cuts and bruises, proper pressures, all tire problems. Quality materials used.

War needs come first. If you wait for new tires, you may regret it. Tires that are too worn cannot be recapped. And our recapping plant may become so busy that you will have to wait. Better ACT TODAY.
