

New Recruits Are Taken Into Local Company

In response to the appeal of Brig. Gen. Victor R. Hansen, the adjutant general of California, for recruits to fill the ranks of various units of the California State Guard to full strength, Co. H, Second Battalion, 39th Regiment, located at Torrance, has added four new recruits recently.

They are Russell Cotner, Emil Richie, Ross Burbank and Harold Bates.

The men enlisted to take advantage of the training and equipment provided by the State Guard to meet a need in the community in event of emergency. The United States Army has joined the adjutant general's office in urging recruits.

Co. H, commanded by Capt. R. L. Lewellen, drills on each Monday from 7 to 10 p.m. in Torrance Ball Park, and a non-commissioned officers' school is conducted Thursday evenings at the same hours. Enlistments are taken either night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dye were entertained for several days last week at the Ventura home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ruggles.

Summer Comes To Torrance, Sure Test Shows

Summer has come to Torrance, for sure.

We have it on no less authority than Walt Shumaker, well known Torrance member of the nudist club.

A few weeks ago when the chill fogs were blowing in from the ocean and people were grumbling that Summer would never come, Nudist Walt told the editor of The Herald, "When you see me walking around in my bare feet, you'll know Summer has arrived."

Yesterday, Walt made his rounds calling on Torrance friends, minus shoes or socks.

Burns on CCCOP Allocation Committee

The conservation committee of California Oil Producers held the annual election of its two standing subcommittees in its meeting of June 13, 1945.

The new administrative committee consists of Emil Kluth, George F. Getty, Inc., chairman; Henry F. Power, General Petroleum Corporation; Guy F. Cherry Jr., Five C Refining Company; R. A. Holman, Amerasia Petroleum Corporation; and T. I. Sherman, Huntington State Company.

The new allocation committee consists of A. H. Bell, Continental Oil Company, chairman; Lot Bowen, Western Gulf Oil Company; H. A. Brett, Union Oil Company of California; P. Robert Burns, MacDonald and Burns; J. L. Caldwell, Barnsdall Oil Company; W. A. Clark, The Texas Company; and C. W. Stephens, The Ohio Oil Company.

Burns resides at Palos Verdes, and has operating wells in the Torrance and Lomita field.

Transportation Problem of Red Cross Studied

A request of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 3251, Torrance, for consideration of the problems of the Junior Red Cross in transportation to hospitals and docks where hospital ships arrive was referred to the City Council Tuesday night.

C. Earl Conner, commander, said that the Junior Red Cross was without facilities to transport sandwiches, coffee and other items in their work, and asked whether or not the ambulance provided for the city by the Kiwanis club could be utilized.

Fire Chief J. E. McMaster said he had inhalator equipment installed in the ambulance, and the council decided to check further into the problem and report it at a later meeting.

Officials Attend Metropolitan Water Meeting

Manager William Stanger of Torrance Municipal Water District No. 1 and Councilman J. E. Hitchcock attended a meeting of the Metropolitan Water District at LaVerne treating plant yesterday called to discuss ways and means of solving the water conditions to suit the conditions of the various communities belonging to the district.

The officials were privileged with seeing the water treating plant for the first time, and out of the conference will come a policy dealing with objections to MWD water, it was said.
