

Third Annual Torrance Rodeo Wed., July 4

6000 EXPECTED TO SEE ANNUAL PRESENTATION

This year's, starting at 2 p.m. Wednesday should make rodeo history.

Attractions

Attractions will include Tod Mason, trick rider and roper of the movies and his famous mount.

Jimmy Dixon, famed clown with his educated mule, will be on hand and he will make the animal dance for the crowd. Conditions permitting, he will have the mule on hand at the Cowboy Dance and allow any male of good character and reputation to dance with her. Jimmy will dance with any woman who has proper dignity.

"Chuck" the bronc-riding clown, also will be at the rodeo. Marjorie Williams, of Torrance, Queen of the Rodeo, and her five-year-old gelding, "Ton-to" will lead the grand entry.

M. Hall, of Good Luck Riding Academy, Waveria, and his trick pony, "Silver" will appear. Cynthia Stewart and her Round-Up Gang will supply music both for the rodeo and the dance.

Matt Crocker, well known rodeo announcer, will be at the mule, and Carlton Grimes, stock man and assistant to Callihan, will be arena director.

All new chutes have been provided. The fence and equipment will be used for the first time Wednesday for the fast, speedy show.

Two thousand additional seats have been brought in for the event.

More than 1,000 head of stock will be in the park. Callihan said that no fireworks or liquor will be allowed in the park, as their presence is unlawful and a menace to the performance.

The members of Bert S. Crossland post, American Legion, working with one of the largest concession companies in Southern California, will serve hot dogs and soft drinks.

TOD MASON . . . Famed trick roper and rider and his mount. Well known in Hollywood, where he rides for the camera, and throughout the west, he is one of the most popular participants in rodeo performances. His tricks will be a highlight at the third annual Torrance Rodeo July 4.

Torrance Wins Alleged Baseball Game, 28 to 3

In what was laughingly called a ball game, Torrance Athletic Club belabored the daylight out of the unbelievably weak Park Airways nine.

'At the end of three awful innings, with T. A. C. leading 25 to 0, a thoroughly disgusted scorekeeper gave up and the only available estimate of a final score was 28 to 3 at the end of six innings at which time everyone went home.

With T. A. C. playing, and giving a good account of itself against the strongest teams in the association, it is anybody's guess where Ray French, bookie secretary for semi-pro ball, found the atrocious Park nine, and one can only surmise what in heavens name he was thinking about when he scheduled them against T. A. C.

However, Manager Ausmus gave the few fans remaining, after the second inning when Torrance exploded for 17 runs, a preview of what Torrance and Lomita fans can expect ten years from now. The first youngster to get into the game was Newton Rowell, age 14, and when the game ended the Torrance lineup read like a Cub Scouts who's who. Les Phillips, age 14, rightfield; Doug Strong, age 10, centerfield; Carl Strong, age 12, leftfield; Dan Phillips, age 11, first base; Newty Rowell, age 14, second base.

And, believe it or not, these youngsters did their full share in helping T. A. C. hold their lead.

Food purchases for the Army this year will be 20 per cent above that of 1944.

healthy out-of-doors events properly supervised by intelligent management and governed by strict rules.

"A cowboy's equipment usually costs hundreds of dollars, and he must ride against all comers; adhere to the rigid rules and handicaps and he must put up an entry fee to participate.

Callihan said that anyone with complete equipment may enter the "Grand Entry" and must be at the park at 1:30 p.m.

Callihan himself will attempt to ride "Can't Wait," a wild Brahma bull which as yet has never allowed a rider on his back.

Advance ticket sales at Beacon Drug Co. are exceeding expectations, Callihan said.

Additional facilities for sale of tickets at the park have been provided, it was announced.

Since the American Legion will get full proceeds from the programs, for its building fund, the committee is urging spectators to buy the souvenir rodeo program.

Last year, cowboys came to the Torrance event from Oregon, Wyoming, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Texas, as well as from various California ranches, and it is expected that there will be an even greater assortment of talent for the show.

Already, several Torrance men have signed up to participate, and any more who care to do so, Callihan said, should contact K. C. Shumway, secretary, CAA.

Among them is Frank Bland, pharmacist at Beacon Drug Co.
