Meeting Held

The rambling ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Church, 2419 W. 251st. st., Lomita was the scene of the Girl Scout Council tea held Thursday.

The tea, an annual evaluation event, is usually given at the close of each year's Girl Scout camp season and reports on the various activities are given.

Camp To-loga-wa, the harbor district Girl Scout camp, came to a happy and successful close at Torrance Park Aug. 2, after serving 370 different girls in a six-weeks day camp, meeting every Tuesday and Thursday.

Council members and mothers of girls, who were in charge of the various troops and the organization of the camp agreed that the outstanding activity this year was the trading post which was housed in the band shell at the park with Mrs. Betty Jowell, Torrance, in charge. Next in importance came the first aid station. Dressed in her Red Cross first aid uniform, Mrs. Wm. Silene, Torrance Red Cross Chapter, was on duty every day ready for any emergency.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon tea were Mrs. Frank Church and Mrs. Sally Kirsch, co-directors for the day camp at Torrance. Pouring tea were Mrs. Phyllis Dow, Lomita, and Mrs. Mark Wright, Torrance. Pink tuberoses, begonias and pink candles were the only decorations on the tea table.

In attendance were Meses. Mary Baer, Eldene Freeman, Mildred Apple, Laurie Kassebaum, Viola Odle, Jean Routman, Ruth Cox, Don Wolf, Mary McDonald, Dorothy Baratta, Fern Artman, Hilda Spaan, Esther Reagan, Ruth M. Smith, Roy Hagaman, Donald Ames, Harry Kaempfer, Phyllis Dow, Cosette Dickerson, Harold Ekman, Joyce Michels, Florence Hagberg, Rita Reynolds and Grace Wright.
