Gilbert, Recreation Superintendent Dale Riley and the Recreation Commission, is finding active use by youngsters of the community. The scene above shows a group of children on the slide, swings, sand pile, and other equipment, with George P. Thatcher, a member of the Recreation Commission, supervising.

Rosabell Wins as Tournament Play Here Draws 35,000 During 30 Days and bleachers at Torrance Ball park.

The tournament opened on Aug. 4, Saturday, with the Ironworkers Union tackling the Pittsburgh Pirates Jr.s, the Ironworkers winning 6 to 2.

Long Beach Ellbees bowed to Bondy's All Stars 2 to 0 on the following night.

Monday night, Aug. 6, saw Sky Lane Cafe, Burbank, give Torrance Athletic Club its first defeat of the tournament, 7 to 5.

Tuesday Rosabell Plumbers started winning beating A. F. of L., Long Beach, 12 to 4.

Standard Oil of El Segundo proved powerful early in the tournament by trouncing Signal Oil's strong nine 9 to 7 in the 5th game.

Arcadia dumped the Ex-Legion Chicks of Long Beach in the 6th game, 11 to 1.

The All-U. S. Marines Pacific Clay Products team took the Paramount Studio Cubs 8 to 2 in the 7th game.

The first round ended with Pacific Pipe Lines fast Negro nine beating North American Aircraft 6 to 5.

In Game No. 9, Aug. 12, Bondy's All Stars pulled a spectacular ninth inning rally capped by Hansman stealing from first to second, third and home to score the winning run over the Ironworkers Union. The game ended 9 to 8.

Pittsburgh Pirate Jr.s were eliminated in the 10th game by the Ellbees, score 4 to 2.

Rosabell Plumbers continued to show their fine organization and tremendous material by blanking Sky Lane Cafe on Aug. 14, in the 11th game. Score 10 to 0.

Torrance Athletic club was kicked out of the tournament by A. F. of L. of Long Beach the following night, in the 12th game, score 7 to 5.

Standard Oil came back to trounce Arcadia in the 13th game, 6 to 2.

The Ex-Legion Chicks pulled a fast one Aug. 17, in the 14th tournament play, by upsetting Signal Oil 4 to 2. No one expected this.

Pacific Clay came back to dump Pacific Pipe Lines 4 to 3 in the 15th game.

Paramount Cubs eliminated North American, 9 to 0, in the 16th and final game of the second round.

Opening the third round, Aug. 20, Rosabell gave Bondy's their first defeat, 5 to 1.

In the 18th game, Ironworkers came back to eliminate Sky Lane Cafe, 5 to 4.

The Ellbees tossed their fellow townsmen, A. F. of L., out of the tournament 7 to 3, in the 19th game, Aug. 22.

Standard Oil stayed on the winning side in the 23rd play, to take Pacific Clay 3 to 2.

Arcadia came back the following night and dumped Pacific Pipe Lines 14 to 1 in an elimination match.

Paramount Cubs ended the third round in the 22nd game by eliminating the Ex-Legion Chicks 4 to 2.

Rosabell started the fourth round by soundly beating Standard Oil 11 to 0, on Aug. 26. It was Rosabell's last game until the finals.

Bondy's came back and edged Pacific Clay out of the tournament 7 to 4.

The Ironworkers, on Aug. 28, eliminated Ellbees 5 to 3.

Arcadia came back and eliminated Paramount Cubs 4 to 3 in the 26th game.

Then started the battle for blood.

Standard Oil, proudly wearing new uniforms, bowed to Bondy's All Stars in a fast and close game 6 to 4 on Aug. 30, thus ending participation of the El Segundo nine in the tournament.

Arcadia demonstrated some fine play in a pitcher's battle

Bondy's Team Champ of L.A. City League

Bondy's All Stars, runnersup in the Southern California Semi-Pro Championship baseball tournament which concluded Sunday with the Rosabell Plumbers continuing their undefeated streak to win, are an organization which has been playing ball in Southern California for seven years. Sam Bondy, manager, has had as high as 44 men on his team.

They have won the Los Angeles municipal league championship for the past four years, but have few professionals in the lineup.

Those who have played professional ball are Herman Hansman, who was with the White Sox and Washington; Red Ramsey, who played Coast league ball and Paul Zaby, who played with Oakland.

Bondy did some fast thinking and made a quick switch, putting Hansman in the pitcher's box, and he proceeded to protect that 2 to 1 score.

That game saw B. Shuelke, center fielder for Arcadia, make some sensational catches. Red Dedaux backed Shuelke back against the fence twice with fly balls; Ramsey and Zaby each did the same with two apiece, but Shuelke was there. Bondy's pulled some fancy double plays on Arcadia, one in the 4th and one in the 6th.

Morgan, Boys Handle Glacier Point Firefall

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morgan, Betsy Ruth and Billy and their guests, Dorothy Whiting and Gene Stirling have returned from two weeks' vacation at Yosemite National Park.

Highlighting the trip for Morgan and the boys was their part in maintaining the Camp Curry 40-year firefall tradition. Arriving at Glacier Point one evening via the three-mile trail, to find the ranger in charge of firefall arrangements incapacitated due to an eye injury, they took over, prepared the bonfire and sent its embers over the face of the 3,200 ft. canyon wall.

Later, with full 35-pound packs, the three left for a 6-day fishing and hiking trip through the upper Merced, Vogelsang Pass and Lyle Glacier returning through Tuolumne Meadows.

County Curfew Ordinance Legal, Appellate Ruling

The county curfew ordinance prohibiting minors from being on the streets after 9 p.m., which Judge Stanley Moffatt of San Antonio township, declared unconstitutional recently, yesterday is back to status quo.

Superior Judges Clarence L. Kincaid, Edward T. Bishop, and Hartley Shaw handed down a decision reversing an appeal made by the district attorney upon the basis of Judge Moffatt's decision, in the case of Raymond A. Walton of Huntington Park.

Walton was arrested last April 17, for allowing his minor son Richard to be on the streets after 9 p.m.

Thursday's decision by the Appellate Court will remand Walton for further proceedings. Thomas A. Law, attorney for Walton, said he planned to appeal the case to the Supreme court.

Big Names in Baseball to Play Here Saturday Night in Benefit Contest

Baseball fans will have another opportunity to see big names of the diamond in action when two all-star teams meet in Torrance park Saturday at 8:15 p.m.

The two teams were picked from the 16 which participated in the Southern California Semi-Pro Championship baseball tournament which concluded here Sunday with Rosabell Plumbers walking away with the title by defeating Bondy's All Stars. The tournament was sponsored by the Southern California Baseball Association and Bert S. Crossland Post, No. 170, the American Legion.

Saturday night's game will be between one professional all-star team and one composed entirely of amateurs.

Naturally the big names are among the professionals, and this team consists of:

HOG RANCH SCENE OF 'DOVE HUNT'

The dove season opened Sept. 1, but not on Green's hog ranch, 100th near west city limits. Green reported that his ranch is not open for the shoot, and complained to police the hunt started early at his place by parties unknown.

Police Chief John Stroh said that the open season will be on the hunters if caught.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

"Job opportunities for several hundred workers in the food service field will soon be available with the reorganization and extension of the program for cafeterias in the Los Angeles city schools."

The true grandeur of nations is in those qualities which constitute the true greatness of the individual. — Charles Sumner my Chevrolet, Iron Workers, and Earl Ramirez, Paramount Studio Cubs.

It will be a benefit game, the insurance fund of the baseball association getting the proceeds.

Torrance Sportorials

Softball Tournament Opens Today

The Torrance Industrial Softball Tournament, sponsored by Bert S. Crossland Post No. 170, the American Legion, will start with games tonight, Sept. 6, at 7:45 p.m. in the Torrance ball park.

Eight outstanding softball teams will participate. A double-header featuring Redondo Cabinet vs. Dow Chemical and 20-30 Club of Inglewood vs. Northrop Flyers will open the double-elimination tournament.

Sept. 7 will see another double-header between Goodyear Tire and Army Hospital. Following this game, National Supply Co. will play Columbia Stamping Co.

The next game of the series will be played Tuesday evening, 7:45, between the winner of game one and game two, Sept.

Marine League Dance Saturday

"Let's start the New (School) Year right."

That might be a good theme for the Marine League dance which will be held in the Civic Auditorium Saturday night starting at 7:30 o'clock.

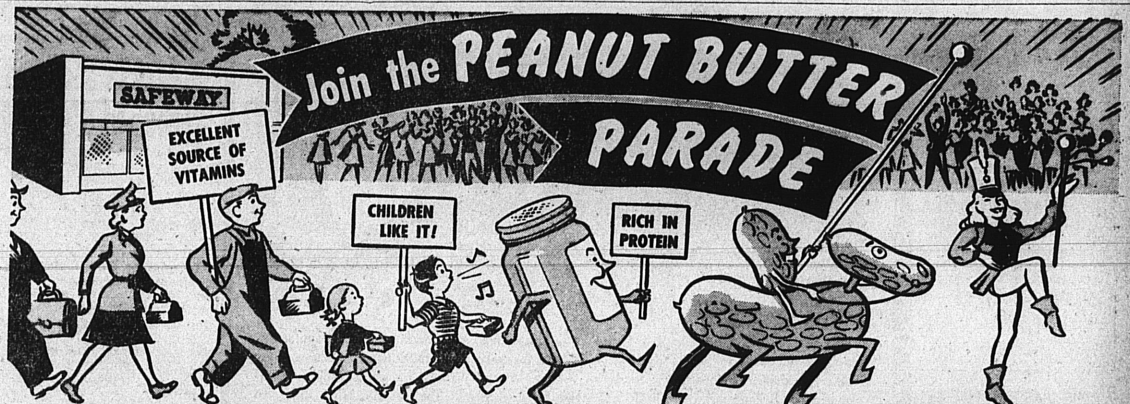

According to Tartars, the guys and gals from all the schools of the Marine League are invited to the "extra-special" attraction of Tartar Town.

The Tartar Town citizens get in on their membership cards, but the others pay a small fee.

Dancing will last until 11:30 p.m. and there will be plenty of hamburgers, hot dogs and pop, they say.

12 will see the winners of games 3 and 4 play.

This tournament will be played off similar to the recent hard ball tournament, but with 14 games, running Tuesday through Friday of each week.
