CARSON STREET P. T. A. REPORTS INITIAL MEET

The importance of immunization against childhood diseases for all children was stressed by a motion picture shown Thursday afternoon at the first regular meeting of Carson street P. T. A. This interesting picture carried an important message to parents of young children. With cooperation from parents many childhood diseases could be completely eliminated, it was pointed out.

Plans for the coming year were announced. The first paper drive will be held in October, the date to be announced later. Also scheduled for October is the annual Halloween party for the children.

Mrs. Zillgitt gave an interesting report on the Toy Loan project to begin at Carson street school very soon. This project will be sponsored by the P. T. A.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by the board members.

Bernice Javens Weds Marine In Beach City

In a simple ceremony performed recently at Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, Miss Bernice V. Javens became the bride of John J. Costanzo, Jr., United States Marine Corps. Attractively attired in an aqua street dress with contrasting accessories and wearing a white orchid and gardenias, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. William C. Emery, who wore brown with aqua accessories and gardenias. William J. Javens, U. S. N., attended the bridegroom and Curnal Javens ushered.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Javens, of 21832 Embassy ave., Long Beach. Upon return from a honeymoon in Erie, Pa., at the home of his parents and in Canadian cities, the happy couple will make their home in Santa Barbara where he is a master sergeant.

Mrs. Costanzo was graduated from Torrance high school. Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Costanzo, Sr., of Erie, Pa., was educated in eastern schools.

Fossums Honored At Birthday Fete Thursday Evening

At the regular meeting of Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held Thursday evening at Masonic Temple, a class of six initiates was received into the order.

The birthdays of Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum provided the incentive for an enjoyable evening with program arrangements in charge of Mrs. Jeannette Clark. Accordion selections by Miss Mary Evans of Lomita and two surprise piano selections by their daughter, Arlys, complimented the honorees.

Later the members adjourned to the banquet room where tables decorated in Mrs. Fossum's colors, pink and blue, held cut flowers, lighted tapers, and a decorated birthday cake. Beautiful gifts were presented.

HOME SERVICE WORKERS... Mrs. Edith Ericson and Mrs. Carl Forkum, Red Cross volunteers, who together have served over 1700 hours during the past year and have made nearly 1400 Home Service case calls in discharging their duties at Torrance Branch American Red Cross. Miss Carolyn Delano is a recent addition to the local corps and prior to her Red Cross assignment was a member of the Women's Army Corps.

To carry out current Red Cross programs numbering among those which have expanded with the end of World War II hostilities, volunteers to serve with the Torrance Home Service Corps and the Gray Lady service at the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation Hospital are now being recruited here.

Needed to assist in the problems of returned veterans and their families, applicants for the Home Service Corps are being interviewed for membership in a training class to open in Compton on October 8; it was announced this week by Mrs. Edith Erickson, Home Service chairman of Torrance. One of three courses to be conducted by the Los Angeles Chapter, American Red Cross, class sessions will be held Mondays and Fridays from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. for six consecutive weeks. One half of the scheduled meetings will be conducted in Compton, with the remaining sessions held in Los Angeles for special field work on selected Home Service cases.

The bulk of the Home Service work in this area has been carried on by Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. Carl Forkum, vice chairman in addition to taking college courses at the University of Southern California four nights a week has given two days a week to this vital Red Cross service. Together they have served over 1700 hours during the past year and have made nearly 1400 Home Service case calls.

Recent addition to the local corps was Miss Carolyn Delano who prior to her Red Cross assignment was a member of the Women's Army Corps. "Volunteers are desperately needed to assist professional staffs in helping servicemen, veterans and their families in Torrance," Mrs. Erickson said. "A long-term program, Home Service responsibilities are mounting daily."

Applicants must have cars and be between 23 and 50 years of age. Other qualifications include liking personal contact work with people and the capacity for learning and using technical information. A personal interview will be given to determine experience and suitability for this confidential service.

Those wishing to apply should call Mrs. Erickson at Torrance 1524.

With the second course of training for Hospital and Recreation service at Station Hospital in Torrance scheduled for this fall, interviews also are being conducted for the Gray Lady Corps. It has been announced by Miss Catherine Laughren, corps leader for Los Angeles chapter.

To be selected from communities adjacent to this city, approximately 40 new members will be trained. General requirements are American citizenship, high school education, good health, between 25 and 50 years of age, emotional stability and definite ability to work under supervision of others.

Characterized as a morale service, Gray Lady work includes library service on the wards, recreation and social activities. Volunteer members also must be able to keep accurate records, as well as make comprehensive referrals to the staff of requests requiring professional social service.

Gray Lady applicants may also obtain appointments for interviews by calling Torrance 1524 or Mrs. M. J. Beale, Torrance 577-R.

Reports Read at Red Cross Meeting Reveal Achievements

The first fall meeting of the Torrance Branch American Red Cross was held Monday evening with a good attendance and reports presented by the various chairmen were records of much work accomplished during the vacation months.

The resignation of Casper Clemmer, as chairman of First Aid was read and accepted with regret. His successor will be named later.

Excerpts were read from the minutes of the last board meeting of the Los Angeles Chapter which Mrs. Hoover attended recently.

Following a talk by John Stroh, Chief of Police, it was decided to retain emergency supplies and equipment at Red Cross headquarters. All plasma is being called in to the Los Angeles headquarters for redistribution to the various hospitals.

The quota for Torrance is 200 Christmas boxes for servicemen, and the different churches and organizations will be asked to contribute to this worthy cause. All further branch meetings will be called by Branch Chairman, Mrs. Lola Hoover.

SCOUT MOTHERS PLAN OCTOBER MEETING
The Mothers Club of Scout Troop No. 241 will meet at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 3 at the home of Mrs. Helen Burger, 1630 Beech ave.
