Methodist Women To Organize Junior Group

A junior woman's group of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be organized at 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday, Oct. 2 in the church social rooms. The program and entertainment committee, Mary Bartholomew and Shirley Peterson, promise an interesting meeting.

Invitations are being issued this week by the committee, Rose Stanley and Mary Alice Cramer. Every young woman interested in the church, including unmarried employed girls and young matrons, is invited and each one is entitled to invite a friend. Refreshments are being planned by Goldie Holmes and Neta Hof.

Mrs. Grace Hooper will open her home at 1635 Amapala ave., at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 2, for a meeting of Circle No. 3. Mrs. Vita Paxton will conduct the business session and devotionals will be led by Mrs. Eva Paxton. Tea will be served.

Mrs. Lulu Tunks and Mrs. Marie Shanahan will entertain members and friends of Circle No. 2 at her home, 1307 Amapala ave., at a covered dish luncheon, Thursday, Oct. 4. Mrs. Marie Shanahan will serve as chairman at the business meeting following and Mrs. Fielding will have charge of devotions.

A come as you are breakfast is being planned for next week. The time and place will be a surprise. Each guest will be picked up by a committee member with her car.

GIRL SCOUTS OUTLINE PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 184 sponsored by the Christian Church, met last Saturday morning and chose patrol leaders. Erma Carstens is patrol leader of the Panther patrol with Marion McDonald, Connie Bergen and Ann Bishop as members. Mitzie Brown is patrol leader of the Pigmy patrol, consisting of Jeanie Cobb, Nancy Prime and Susie McWald. Marica Wright leads the Beaver patrol with Jackie Jackson, Carol Campbell and Janice Crabtree as members. Any girl who is 9½ and in grammar school may join this troop.

Plans were made to have a Brownie "Fly up" and Parents Night in October at which time this troop will celebrate its seventh birthday. Mrs. Gladys Pletschke will continue as leader with Mrs. McWald and Mrs. Campbell as assistants.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS REPORT ACTIVITIES

Girls' League Program Outlined For Meet Today

Today the girls' League will hold its first gathering of the year to get acquainted with the new girls and to introduce to them the traditions of the girls of Torrance High School.

Miss Pauline Leetz will preside over the new ushers as they conduct the girls to their various sections.

Plenty of fun and competition will be provided as the song and yell leader teams vie with each other, demonstrating their skills preparatory to the election to be held to select those who will lead the girls in their pep sessions for the semester. The teams consist of Anna Svenski, Nelle Hoett, Bobbie Fitzgibbon, Stella Palmer and Patricia Kapsch who will compete against Teresa McIntier, Myrna Fossum, Leona Stassin and Bettie Sommers.

Miss Wanda Moore will act as presiding officer. Other officers of the Girls' League are Vivian Oliver, vice-president; Pauline Leetz, secretary; Marlene Quaglin, second vice-president and junior high school president; Beverly Hopkins, reporter; Mary Shultz, historian and Nancy Whyte, pianist.

Vivian Oliver, vice-president, will act as chairman of a panel on the traditions of the school and the regulations governing the girls. Those who will conduct the discussion are Naomi Edwards, Frances Barrington, Emogene Held, Mary Ellen Crawford and Barbara Spangler, all Seniors.

New business for the semester concerns dividing the Girls' League Council into junior and senior high school organizations. The junior high school council will be under the direction of the second vice president and consists of the class representatives and the club presidents. The senior high school council will be under the direction of Wanda Moore, president, and will be composed of the officers and senior high school representatives.

Miss Elizabeth Parks, Girls' vice-principal is sponsor for the Girls' League.

A.L.A. Members Report Gala Party Tuesday Evening

Outstanding among recent attractively appointed American Legion Auxiliary affairs was the dinner enjoyed Tuesday evening at St. Andrew's Guild Hall. A Spanish motif was effectively followed in decorations, menu and program.

Diminutive potted cactus and succulents, colored gourds and myriads of lighted candles enhanced the setting. A delicious chichilada dinner, served by Mmes. Fan Wilkes and Ella Robinson, cohostesses and their committee, was enjoyed by about 35 members.

Highlighting the program, presented by Mmes. Margaret Johnson, Nadine Nickol and Gertrude Boyle was a mock radio broadcast, "Radio Station WF," followed by Spanish vocal solos and duets by Mmes. Johnson and Nickol who presented as an encore a comedy skit, "Peanuts." The highly entertaining and pleasing program was enthusiastically received.

Members are asked to note a change in the meeting nights to the second and fourth Mondays. The first meeting will be a business session and the second one will be a social, according to Mrs. Emma Evans, president.

JACKIE HEDBERG IS SIX YEARS OLD
