County Workers In Service To Be Remembered

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby introduced a resolution which was duly passed by the Board of Supervisors requesting the mechanical department and the architect for the new Court House to provide in the plans a suitable space for a plaque in the new Court House when constructed, on which may be recorded the names of the 2159 employees of the County who served in the armed forces of the United States during World War II, with special mention of the 25 who gave their lives in that service.

O. M. Baker Given 20 Days In County Jail

Oliver M. Baker, 1211 E. Prado, Monday was sentenced to 20 days in the County Jail, Nov. 30, with six months suspended and an order to stay out of Torrance, by City Judge John Shidler. Baker, who originally was charged with child beating, denied the accusation brought by his wife, Mrs. Betty Baker. Mrs. Baker reported to police that although she had not actually seen her husband strike their three-year-old son, Richard, about the head and face, she was confident that he had. She stated that while she was in another room of the apartment with their other child, Richard ran into her room screaming that his daddy had beat him. Wells, about the youngest's face confirmed that he had been beaten, police believed. The charge of child beating was reduced to simple assault when no witness could be produced who had seen the child as

Anzio Returning To Coast With American Troops

The U. S. aircraft carrier Anzio was en route to the United States today with 1200 returning American service men. A number of local boys are stationed aboard the Anzio, including Robert L. Lewellen, Jr., seaman, first class, quartermaster, son of Capt. and Mrs. R. L. Lewellen, of Torrance.

AT DINNER, THEATRE

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnston entertained their son David and Bonnie Selover at dinner and a theatre party in Hollywood Sunday evening.

The Bakers have been separated for some time, it was learned, with the husband paying occasional visits for the purpose of seeing the children.

No Shortage Of Christmas Trees, Says Forester

There is the customary rumor going the rounds that Christmas trees are in short supply, State Forester DeWitt Nelson said Tuesday, but he declared this is not true.

Similar rumors in past years, he said, have led to last-minute cutting in excess quantities with the result thousands of trees have been destroyed needlessly.
