Clubwomen Present Delightful Program Wednesday Afternoon

In a beautiful Yuletide setting at their clubhouse last Wednesday afternoon members of Torrance Woman's club and their guests were delightfully entertained.

Mrs. R. R. Smith, president, conducted a business session and presented Mrs. Chris Jones, program chairman, who introduced Mary Green Pauloo, soprano, of Los Angeles, whose program of vocal selections was thoroughly enjoyed. Popular Christmas carols completed her program.

At the tea table, colorful with an arrangement of conestater berries, greenery and lighted red tapers, Mrs. Chris Jones and Mrs. W. F. Bartholomew, poured. Arrangements for the tea were completed by members of the executive board.

Club members are looking forward to an accelerated program of social and cultural affairs planned for the balance of the club year, according to Mrs. R. R. Smith, president.

VFW AUXILIARY, POST, TO ENJOY YULE PARTY

VFW Auxiliary of Post 3251 will present a Christmas program at their regular meeting in time, Monday evening, Dec. 17. A 6:30 o'clock pot luck supper will precede a brief business session, to be conducted by Mrs. Clara Conner, president. Members of Post and auxiliary and their families are cordially invited. Each person attending is requested to supply a 50 cent gift for exchange at the Christmas party following the meeting.

FROM SALT LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thomas (Eva McCormick) arrived recently from Salt Lake City to make their home here. Temporarily they are visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Dennis.

'ATOMIC ENERGY' IS P.T.A. MEETING THEME

The secrets of atomic energy as explained by Dr. Conroy Snyder, of the California Institute of Technology, were given to members of Tenth District P.T.A. at the annual evening meeting held in Polytechnic high school, Los Angeles last Thursday. Aided by slides, Dr. Snyder successfully conveyed to his audience the scientific steps in the development of the atomic bomb. Regarding the future, the speaker said the security would not remain with us very long, and urged the removal of hatred and suspicion among peoples as the only permanent safeguard of peace.

Groundwork for the campaign for funds for the new clinic were laid by Mrs. Edwin T. Walker, junior past president of Tenth District, and sixth vice president of the State Congress, who took as her slogan, "Match your membership with dollars." The campaign is timed for January and has $200,000 as its goal. Due to increasing responsibility and employment of people the district voted to incorporate.

Mothering of Tenth District, under the direction of William Hartshorn, presented a program of Christmas carols.

Gateway Council members present were: Mrs. V. E. Hopkins, Mrs. Robert L. Thompson, Mrs. J. J. Millard, of the District Board; Mrs. William Hall, San Pedro; L. C. Stephenson, F. K. Kleibing, Dana Junior; C. Turner, Torrance; Kenneth Schwartz, Narbonne; M. F. Harp, Banning, and J. E. Cox, Gardena.

Giles-Gray Rites Performed Recently At Neelands Home

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands announce the marriage of their daughter, Joan Gray, to Dr. Eugene Giles, of Hollywood.

The ceremony, performed Saturday evening, Dec. 1 by Rev. H. Wesley Roloff, at the home of the bride's parents, was attended by family members.

Mrs. Giles, wearing a brown dressmaker suit with matching accessories and corsage of gardenias, was attended by her sister, Mrs. O. W. Mooradian, of Walters, who wore a blue tailored suit and gardenias. O. W. Mooradian was the bridegroom's attendant.

The bridegroom was recently discharged following about two years' Pacific duty with the United States Coast Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Giles will live in Hollywood.

BRIDE-ELECT FETED AT NUMEROUS AFFAIRS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Wells, of 1001 Sartori ave., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beverly to Capt. Robert E. Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Callahan, of St. Louis, Mo. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Wells has been feted at many pre-nuptial parties, including one given by her sorority sisters of Delta Theta Tau and a dinner party given by Miss Josephine Carlson, of Los Angeles. Miss Frances Huffman also entertained at dinner in Miss Wells' honor. This evening will mark another courtesy for the bride-elect when her sister, Mrs. Doris Brooks, and her mother, Mrs. Henry Wells, will entertain at their home.

Her fiancé was recently discharged from the Army following three and a half years' service, two of which he served in the Pacific Theatre, in New Guinea, and the Philippines. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal.

Miss Wells will leave soon for St. Louis to spend the Christmas holidays and where she will eventually make her home. She will be joined soon by her sister, Mrs. Doris Brooks, who also plans a visit with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brooks.

Mrs. M. W. HINSHAW IS PARTY HOSTESS

Mrs. M. W. Hinshaw was a gracious hostess to members of her bridge club whom she entertained Tuesday evening at her home on Cota ave. Arrangements of ivy in white pottery bowls used throughout the rooms were an effective color accent. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of play and Mmes. R. J. Ashley and M. N. Felker were presented with prizes. Mrs. Jackson S. Moore was a club guest.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT P. G. BRINEY HOME

The San Pedro home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry G. Briney, formerly of this city, was a setting for an enjoyable Christmas dinner party Sunday when club members and their husbands were entertained. Poinsettias and lighted tapers centered the dining table set for 22 guests from Torrance, San Pedro, Long Beach and Bellflower. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Neelands and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Curtiss were among the guests.

TO LAKE RESORT

Mrs. G. J. Deroun and twin sons, Pat and Mike, left yesterday for Lake Hodges where they, with other family members, will spend the Christmas holidays.

Pischel-Schultz In Recent Rites At Lutheran Church

In a double ring candlelight ceremony performed recently at First Lutheran Church, Miss Doris Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schultz of Norfolk, Neb., became the bride of Keith Pischel, of this city. Rev. F. D. Mechlun officiated.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur Sydow, of Lomita, the bride was beautifully attired in a white satin and lace gown. Her fingertip veil was draped from a Juliet cap and she carried white orchids and bouvardia on a Bible. Mrs. Henry Carlson, in blue satin and net, was her sister's matron of honor. A matching hat and a nosegay of roses and blue delphinium completed her costume. The other bridal attendants were Mrs. Frank Pischel, of Hollywood and Miss Florence Daniels, of Torrance, who were gowned alike in yellow satin and net, with matching hats. Their bouquets were pink roses and blue delphinium. Henry Carlson was the bridegroom's attendant and Garry Schultz, of Norfolk, Neb., and Richard Cole ushered. Mrs. E. A. Schwartz played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Richard R. Irving who sang.

At the reception following, Mrs. Floyd Daniels poured and Mrs. Raymond Bossart and Mrs. Steve Spaan assisted. Miss Elinor Spaan presided over the guest book.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pischel, of Norfolk, Neb., is employed at California Bank, Lomita. Mrs. Pischel has been an employee at Barnes Steamship Company, Wilmington. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, they will make their home here.

Former Residents Of Nova Scotia At Annual Dinner

The annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Society, held Saturday evening at Rosslyn Hotel, Los Angeles was an enjoyable occasion for former Nova Scotians and their guests.

Dr. Stewart McClelland, director of the Pilgrimage Play, was the principal speaker and Prof. Eric Titus of the School of Religion at USC Campus, also a former resident of Nova Scotia, gave a brief talk. A. J. Ferguson, program chairman, also presented a program of music and dramatic readings featuring vocal selections by Mrs. Robert Pierson, of San Pedro, accompanied by Mrs. John V. Murray, a solo by Miss Phyllis McVicar of this city, accompanied by Miss Verne Brumbelo, of Hermosa Beach, and readings by Mrs. H. L. Wagner, of Torrance, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ferguson.
