Contributions Lag In Torrance
Moose's Big Christmas Party

The big Christmas party planned by the Loyal Order of Moose in Torrance Dec. 23, is still in need of more donations from local citizens, according to James Barker, chairman of the Christmas party committee. He said that the biggest party Torrance has seen, will be staged despite the lag in donations. He said that his organization, is in hope of last minute contributions to help defray expenses.

More than 2500 children and their parents are expected to attend the gala event that will see headline vaudeville for entertainment, plus candy and nuts to be distributed among the kids.

The Moose Lodge, 1951 Carson st. is accepting the contributions for the affair. Persons desiring to make these contributions may call in person or mail them in. All money received will go toward making this event possible.

In addition to Al Herman, black face master of ceremonies, and others mentioned in last week's edition of the Herald, there will be Bob Perry, the Tramboline Clown, famous all over the continent as the "Clown of Clowns."

Marie Del Moure will be at the party and may invite the kids from the audience to share in her act. Del Moure is a ventriloquist supreme, rating top billing with the Keith-Orpheum

Circuit around the nation. No show is complete without Joe Mone the "Cycling Maniac" who will thrill everyone attending with daring feats of cycling. Joe is among the foremost cyclists in the country and is no sight for those with a weak heart.

For those who appreciate the finest in roping, Felix Vallie, protégé of the late Will Rogers, has rope tricks that will prove to be new to even the oldest of old timers.

The act that may steal the show however, is Irene McAffee and Company—the company being dogs performing tricks which leaves one wondering if they can't talk.

Remember the place, the Torrance Civic Auditorium; the date, Dec. 23, and the time, 2:00 p.m.

Contributions received to date have totaled, $1,709.83.

Those making donations during the past week are of the following:

John Houghtaling	$ 5.00
G. H. Packard	5.00
U.S.W. of A. (CIO-1414)	10.00
O. A. Kresse	5.00
I. M. Ambach	10.00
W. V. Brown	5.00

TOTAL $40.00
