A new trap for servicemen was sprung in this city last Saturday night, according to police or records, and almost noted a records and arracted by a cute little number who lured him from the show. He said that he was attracted by a cute little number who lured him from the show. He said that he was estimated by a cute little number of Cabrillo and Gramercy-ave, of where as they stepped inside fist met him full on the jaw.

The soldier confessed that he was staggered, but did not go down. Instead he threw, one back at his assailant and felt him go down from its force Shewell said that it was quited dark and not knowing the number of parties involved, he struck out in a lively sprint to the police station.

Police Chief John Stroh repeated a warning to servicement that a pretty face is not that easy to pick-up, and any resemblance to the real thing is more likely a trap.
