Foursquare Entertains Its Veteran Members Food Campaign

The Foursquare Church of orrance, located at 1207 El Prado, honored their service men at a banquet held in the Wo-men's Clubhouse of Torrance, Saturday, June 22. There were some 70 people in attendance, of whom 25 were service men con-nected with the local Foursquare nected with the local Foursquare Church. The master of eermon-ies was Walt Kinsey, who served in the Merchant Marine. Each of the service men spoke, and some related interesting happenings in their field of ser-vice. Included in the musical pro-gram were Billy Reynolds in viana selections. Hev. Alene Pedpiano selections, Rev. Alene Ped-ersen, and Rev. Bernice Busse who sang respectively, "When my Boy Comes Home," and "God

SUPER MARKETS

Contributions Still Taken In

Contributions to the Emergency Food Collection for world famine relief still may be sent to any of the local churches, according to the Rev. Ronald J. Menmuir, chairman of the drive. Money rather than camed goods is more to be desired, the chairman said, bith from a local and a national point of view. National Chairman Lee Marshall early in the campaign said that national headquarters preferred that money be sent in to enable the committee to buy in larger lots and facilitate shipments.
