READY FOR NEW ORDERS!

The uniform he wore for so long is on the rack . . . and he's in civvies again. The day he dreamed about is here and he's ready to work to insure the peace he fought for. He is the man of tomorrow upon whose shoulders will rest the responsibility of our future progress. We are proud to welcome him back. Together we will see that our joint peace efforts will equal the accomplishments of our past war efforts.
