

Quonset Hut Sale To Vets Starts July 15

Quonset huts — suitable for temporary homes during the housing shortage emergency, for warehousing, or for work-shops or farm buildings — will be offered in advance of the sale. He cautioned them also that in many localities the huts would not be permitted as residences because of city or county zoning and building restrictions.

Prospective buyers are being urged to familiarize themselves before-hand with state regulations regarding the moving of large structures over state highways, and with local zoning and building ordinance restrictions. Purchasers must arrange to have their huts removed from the naval base within 30 days.

The huts, made of corrugated steel, have wood floors, average 16 feet by 36 feet in size, and those with windows, and those without windows, and those with two windows, and those with four windows. Some are in only fair condition and need repairs. None has utility facilities of any kind.

This is the first public quonset sale in this region. In the past, all available have gone to the Federal Public Housing Authority for use in its emergency veterans' housing program.

Use Of Loose Sugar Stamps Is Illegal, Says OPA

Trafficking in loose sugar ration coupons today was scored by Edwin Poehlmann, Southern California OPA sugar ration chief, who pointed out that Office of Price Administration regulations prohibit such illegal use of stamps.

Despite the fact the OPA does not now have control over prices and rent, it still maintains the jurisdiction over the sugar rationing program under the Second War Powers Act.

Poehlmann asserted that the abuse in the handling of sugar stamps applies only to the five pound stamps attached to ration book No. 4, and are not to be confused with the loose restaurant ten pound stamp, nor the one pound loose furlough stamps issued to servicemen on leave. "The law specifically states," said Poehlmann, "that no person may accept a sugar stamp from a customer or a person acting on behalf of the consumer unless the stamp is detached from the ration book in the presence of the consumer."

It has been authoritatively estimated that about 68,200,000 restaurant meals are served daily in the United States.

LOWER MATTOLE RIVER

Fishing is fair with some good catches being reported from Lower Mattole River near Petrolia, Humboldt County. Fishing is fair in most streams of the county, with occasionally an exceptional day on the Upper Mad River.

MT. RAINIER PARK

Although Mount Rainier National Park, Washington, this year will experience its biggest travel season, accommodations are limited, as cabins removed from the park for emergency housing during the war have not been replaced.

City Asks Governor To Call Session Of Legislature About Rent Problem

Joining in the effort to stop unnecessary increases in rents, the Torrance City Council Friday night acted to wire Governor Warren to call a special session of the Legislature to adopt measures which would invoke rental ceilings on property in the state.

The council investigated its ability to invoke Torrance legislation, but decided on the state movement if federal controls on rents are not reinstated.

Meanwhile, Tuesday the county supervisors passed an emergency ordinance fixing rent increases in unincorporated territory at 15 percent more than OPA ceilings of June 30.

One reported increase in Torrance rentals from $20 to $100 a month was explained to the Torrance Herald this week by Joseph Venable, who said that his son has purchased a house at 2024 Gramercy avenue because he was required by his physician to move away from his former home at the beach, and that the tenant in the house had agreed to move as soon as the deal was out of escrow.

Venable said the deal cleared escrow 90 days ago and that the tenant refused to move. He said the $100 a month rental and eviction notice was to force the tenant to surrender the house to the new owner, and for no other reason. Venable said his son and family, four in all, have been forced to live in one room pending securing possession of their recently acquired home.

407,462 Claims For Unemployment Allowed In May

Richard E. Langdon, Readjustment Allowance Agent for California, Veterans Administration, reports that 407,462 weekly claims for readjustment allowances were paid to unemployed veterans throughout the state during May. Langdon also stated that 4,648 of these weekly claims were paid to veterans who became ill or disabled during their period of unemployment.

SPORTS STADIUM REHEARING TO BE HELD JULY 30

The Board of Supervisors has set July 30 as the date for hearing on the new request of Ware and Crosley for a M-3 permit to maintain a sports stadium and auto race track on the north side of Carson st. in the Dominguez district, according to Supervisor Raymond V. Darby.
