Allen, of 1447, Post ave., entertained at dinner in their home Sunday for her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kluseman and Miss Doris, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Allen, Lois Jayne Allen and Mrs. Corabelle Potts, all of this city. The occasion was a birthday courtesy for Mrs. Kluseman, who was the recipient of lovely personal gifts.

VFW Auxiliary Tells Year's Plans For Vets' Hospitals

At the regular meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary of Post No. 3251, plans were outlined for a basket picnic to be held in Torrance city park on Sept. 22. Due to the Labor Day holiday falling on the scheduled meeting night, there will be no meeting on Sept. 2.

Mary Towler, hospital chairman, reported on her recent visit to Sawtelle Veterans' hospital. A fine hospital program is scheduled for this year with a heavy quota. Persons interested in assisting with this splendid work are asked to contact Mary Towler or Hilma Malin by calling Torrance 1798-W.

Many useful articles for boys may be made from unused materials to be found in the average home, she stated.

Mrs. Towler further reported: "Veterans' hospitals are packed to capacity with boys returned from overseas service and the least we can do is to help make the boys comfortable by providing for their small personal needs."

Accordionettes Present Program At Gala Party

The Walter Smiths, of 1462 Bay View avenue, Wilmington, were honored at a silver anniversary party on Sunday, Aug. 18. About 100 guests assembled in the patio early in the afternoon. After several pictures were taken, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their guests were entertained with accordian numbers and songs and dances presented by the Accordionettes.

Group numbers and solos were played by Janene Colombo, Cathryn Clouse, Norma Meadows, Leroy Moore, Gail and Bettie Thomas. Various adagio and acrobatic numbers were performed by Cindy and Steve Hornick. Later in the program these versatile youngsters presented a jitterbug dance. Yolanda and Leroy won the audience with their rendition of "You won't be satisfied," "Sioux City Sue" and "Tico Tico," as they accompanied themselves on the maracas. Louise Clouse augmented the program with several tap solos.

A three-tiered wedding cake and other refreshments were served followed by the opening of the Smiths' many lovely anniversary gifts.

Further musical selections concluded the affair, and the departing guests were enthusiastic in their appreciation of the artist group.

PLAY SCHEDULED BY C.D.A. GROUP

Members of the Convert League of Court St. Cathedral No. 1378 C.D. of A. enjoyed a delightful evening Monday, Aug. 19, at the home of Mrs. Frances Forester on Fern ave. Plans were outlined for the play "The Living Rosary," which the league members will produce in mid-October.

Following a review of the play and assignment of parts, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to Mmes. Clare Farrell, Lillian Schott, Anna McIntier, Elsie O'Fallon, Florence Turner, the Misses Opal Yorker and Virginia Zamperlin.

The regular social meeting of the court will be held at Notchity Parrish Hall Monday evening, Aug. 26 at 8 p.m.
