

OPA Tells How To Get New Sugar Coupons

With the closing of OPA's boards throughout Southern California a new procedure for obtaining sugar rationing forms and applications was announced by Jackson Carle, newly appointed director of the Southland OPA sugar rationing branch office.

Application forms for periodic allotments to industrial and institutional users will be mailed directly from the regional issuance unit in San Francisco.

All other forms for both consumer and commercial users will be available at the branch office located at 1206 Santee st., Los Angeles. These may be obtained either by a personal call or by mail, with officials asking that requests be made by mail.

TORRANCE GIRLS IN NEW POSITIONS

Lorraine J. Schmidt, of 1739 Gramercy ave., has accepted a position in the commutation department of the Southwest Airways at Mills Field. S. F. Miss Schmidt is a daughter of Mrs. Maybelle Schmidt, of the Gramercy avenue address, former manager of the Southern Inn here.

Miss Gladys Burkett, of Lebanon, Ore., who has been living with the Schmidts for the past year, has also accepted a similar position with the same air-
