Fire Chief In Warning On Yuletide Lights

ing to all residents in the city. Fire Chief John E. McMaster of the Torrance Fire Department when interviewed today said, "Christmas conflagrations e an ruin the holiday season for many people unless they give a little more thought and attention to eliminating the hazards they deliberately create in their homes with festive decorations."

During the last two weeks of December, 1945, many fire seased by "shorts" in Christmas tree lights, candles, portable heaters, and highly combustible gift wrappings were extinguished by various fire departments. Severe burns, the result of futile attempts to extinguish the flames, sent a score of people to hospitals for treatment, "As long as people insist on making firetraps of their living rooms we can expect fires of this type every year," continued the Chief.

When asked what precautions could be taken to prevent these fires from occurring, Chief McMaster outlined the following safeguards:

1. Place your tree in a bucket of wet sand. With suitable bracing this makes an excellent base and helps keep the tree from
