Tall red tapers and English holly decorated the attractive tea table at which Mrs. Harry Massie and Mrs. Carl Forkum poured. On the mantel of the living room, additional red ta-pers were used to furnish the only light at the delightful af-fair.

Need For Volunteer Auxiliary Workers

Auxiliary Workers Expanding its service to the disabled war veterans is now a nation-wide project of the Ameri-can Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Oliva Lee, rehabilitation chairman, told a meeting of Bert S. Crossland unit this week. The greatly th-creased numbers of disabled men-now needing help and care re-quire many more voluntaer Auxiliary workers in every com-munity, she stated. "As the major.'ty of disabled veterans now are veterans of World War. II, we are appealing to women of World War II fam-lies to come into the Auxiliary and help us serve them," Mrs. Lee said. "Many already have responded and are taking deep inter st in the wylk. Because of the second war, they bring to the wort an understanding and sym-pathy which makes them espe-cially successful.
