Torrance Oilers Knock Off Sampson Motors For Third Win

The Torrance Signal Oilers run and two his Sunday marked up their third consecutive win over the Sampson Motors nine by a score of 4.3. The game played at Torrance park was highlighted by the masterful hurling of fifteen year-old Narbonne high school student, Paul Pettit. Although Pettit allowed four men to reach base via free passes, his three innings were blank for the Sampson hit and run columns.

Bowling Alley Purchased By Local Kegler

The Torrance Bowling Academy now is officially under new ownership. "Short" and "Toots" Yapbrough announced the completion of purchase Tuesday of the local alleys from R. R. Kendig.
Yarbrough, former owner of the Lomita Auto Parts, is well known in kegler circles here. Larry (Minnie) Sommers will be the Academy manager.

"VIEX CARRE" (French Quarter) is translated into the print of this summer frock, perfect for street and afternoon wear with the bolero jacket, ideal for der the stars when the jacket is removed to reveal criss-cross straps over bare shoulders. The black crepe midriff does wonders to slim the waistline. This at the Gay Shop in Torrance.
