Myrna Lou Fossum, 1621 Cota ave., Torrance, has been named a member of the orchestra for "Knickerbocker Holiday." latest production at the famed Poet Theater of Whitter college, it was announced here this week. The musical comedy, scheduled to run March 13, 14 and 15 at the college, is the satirical story of Peter Stuyvesant's reign over New Amsterdam in the 17th century.

Miss Fossum, a freshman at Whitter college, appeared in Gilbert and Sullivans "H. M. S. Pinafore" while in high school.

Victor L. Hetzel Reveals Heavy Disability Outlay

Victor L. Hetzel, recently appointed manager of the Disability Insurance office in Long Beach, and formerly manager of the unemployments insurance office in Torrance, revealed to day that disabled California workers in the southern Los Arigeles and Orange County areas received $117,517 in disability benefits during the month of February 1947. The area extends to Imperial blvd. In Los Angeles County and includes all of Orange County.

The 38 percent increase in the number of disability claims filed over last month indicates that more disabled workers are daily seeking information and obtaining official blanks from local Department of Employment offices in this area.

Hetzel emphasizes that all disabled workers, not eligible to receive workmen's compensation are eligible to offices in this area.

Hetzel emphasizes that all disabled workers, not eligible to receive workmen's compensation are eligible to offices in the present insurance act. This amount must have been earned in their base period which at the present time is the 12 months following April 1, 1945.

Forms and information regarding disability insurance may be secured at the local Department of Employment office at 1828 Cravens ave.
