Philatheas Present Hilarious Skit For Community Enjoyment

Gathered in Methodist church Friday evening a capacity audience enjoyed the hilarious skit offered by the Philatheas, augmented by a program of readings and instrumental and vocal selections.
The program opened with a pianologue by Ann Olson, a solo by Dorothee Hodges, choir leader; two marimbaphone solos by Rudolph Bowen, two charming readings by Mrs. H. L. Wagner; Yolanda Goldsmith and Harold Holmes in a vocal duet with Mrs. Gertrude Lingo as accompanist for them and for Mrs. Hodges' solo.

The highlight of the evening, a skit entitled "Henpeck Holler Society," directed by Rosalind King, was then presented. Featured were 10 charming ladies, attired in authentic hats and gowns of styles popular 50 years ago including:

Violet Hammersley, as "Matilda," president of the Sewing Circle, garbed in floor length cream lace; Peggy Leming, as "Mary Potter," secretary, wearing pink satin with black and a flower garden hat; Lucille Hill as "Belinda," very statuesque in cream satin, tulle and moss green velvet; Alice Swanson as "Angelina," with an ear trumpet, gowned in black and definitely dated hat; her friend, Ruth Tunks as "Calamity" (who relays gossip through an ear trumpet) wearing dark blue satin brocade in silver, cut a la polonaise over yards of ruffles and wearing ruchings and antique jewelry.
Rosalind King, forced by the sudden illness of Mary Alexander to assume her part of "Violet Lobelia Aster," the old maid, wore turquoise tulle and lace, complemented by a fuchsia plumed hat with matching scarf and sash. Mrs. Sophia Duncan as "Phoebe," was attired in black basque and skirt with watch and chain completed her attire. Neta Hof, as "Dolly," wore a ruffled beige lace creation and a huge cartwheel black velvet hat; Betty Sandstrom, playing supercilious "Sophrony," chose ruffled pale green and white complete with a plumed picture hat.
Mrs. Beatrice Bryson assisted as prompter and John King as announcer. Refreshments were served by Jean Engelmoehr and Virginia Gibbs.

The occasion will mark a joint concert with the Methodist church choir, William Mallory, conductor. The program consists of orchestra numbers from Mozart and Beethoven and a solo and ensemble from Handel's "Messiah." Donna Berry, a well known oratorio singer, will present "O Thou That Tellest," with orchestra and Grace Secrist, violinist, will play the Weinawski concerto with orchestra. Phyllis Edwin, church organist, will assist. The concert closes with an ensemble, the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah."

No admission charge will be made for this, one of the important musical events of the season, which promises to be an outstanding pre-Easter celebration.

Test yourself as a good party-line neighbor...

If you're a good party-line neighbor, you space your calls instead of making a series of them...and you talk only as long as necessary on each call. This courtesy...simple as it is...will be genuinely appreciated by the neighbors sharing your line. Just as you'll welcome the same thoughtfulness toward you. In fact, all of you will get the most out of your telephone service when you...

Follow the Golden Rule for party-line neighbors:

- * Replace the receiver properly when you finish talking.
- * Make certain, if you are using a dial telephone that the line is clear before you dial.
- * Ask your youngsters not to monopolize the telephone.
- * Space your calls instead of making an extended series of them.
- * Talk only as long as necessary on each call. Thank you.
