Veterans' Tax Exemption.—At least 40,000 World War II veterans residing in the area of the Los Angeles VA regional office have become home owners since this tax year started, July 1, 1946. During the past eight months the VA regional loan guaranty department has completed a few less than 25,000 loans under the provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill). Nine thousand additional veterans have had their deals approved and are, awaiting completion of new homes, or escrow proceedings. Many others, during this period, have purchased or constructed homes without government assistance. At the present time the VA loan department is processing well over one million dollars in loans per day. Under the laws of California,

Right Guide

At the present time the VA loan department is processing well over one million dollars in loans per day.

Under the laws of California, veterans are entitled to apply for a limited tax exempion.

The Veterans Administration is in no way connected with the processing of this, or other state veteran benefit laws. Veterans interested in tax exemtion information and application blanks should contact the counties in which they live. Most of these offices have special veterans' departments.

However, as a help to these new veteran home owners, and because of the service given by the assessors' offices to hospitalized veterans, and also to an swer many inquiries made of VA offices, "Right Guide" of fers the following tips:

1. Who are eligible?

a. Veterans of all wars, honorably discharged.

b. Peacetime servicemen, now honorably discharged, who have service-connected disabilities.

c. Unremarried widows of deceased veterans.

d. Widowed mothers receiving government pensions or compensation connected with sons' wartime service.

2. Veterans, in order to obtain exemptions, must apply time service.

2. Veterans, in order to obtain exemptions, must apply some time between the first Monday of March and the last Monday of June. (This year, 1947, the dates are March 3 to June 30).

to June 30).

3. Deeds must be recorded before the first Monday of March to be eligible for current year's exemptions. In other words, veterans will not be eligible for 1947 tax exemptions unless deeds were recorded prior to March

4. Veterans applying for the rst time must show copies, or riginals, of honorable disharges and copies of grant eeds. At the time of original pplications, certificates will be iven them which they may use or subsequent yearly applications.

for subsequent yearly applications.

5. Applications must be signed by veterans themselves unless they are too ill to sign or are outside the United States. In such cases members of veterans' immediate families may sign for them.

Special deputies from the asseasors' offices make periodic visits to VA hospitals to assist veterans with tax exemption problems. This service is available to hospitalized veterans only after members of their families apply for it in person at the tax assessor's office. Š
