GIRL SCOUT AND BROWNIE TROOPS IN VARIED ACTIVITIES

Girl Scouts and Brownie Scout troops are being sponsored by Perry school. Last week Mrs. Olive Dickson, field director, Harbor section, spoke before a group of association members on the requirements of Scout trainings. The group chose Mrs. Noma Mitchell as North Torrance and El Nido neighborhood chairman, and it was decided to form one Girl Scout troop and one Brownie Scout troop. Training for Brownie leaders was taken from Mrs. John H. Kirsch, training chairman, Harbor district, and Scout training started yesterday with Mrs. Frank H. Church, section chairman, Harbor district, instructing.

At a meeting held Monday in the school auditorium, it was decided to have the first Brownie Scout meeting on Wednesday, May 7, at 3:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. W. C. Graham, Brownie leader, in El Nido.

In a simple Sunday afternoon service recently performed in Nativity Catholic church, Miss Naida Elaine Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mitchell, of 819 Portola ave., became the bride of Mr. Raymond James McIntier, son of Mrs. Anna McIntier, of 1735 Gramercy ave. Rev. Father Edward Dougery read the rites in the presence of family members and intimate friends of the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a light grey tailored suit with blue accessories complemented by a bridal corsage of white orchids. She was attended by Miss Terry McIntier, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a beige suit with black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Patrick Cunningham attended the bridegroom as best man, Mrs. Neil J. McConlogue, at the organ, played the wedding march and recessional.

Mrs. McIntier was graduated from Torrance high school with the class of summer 1944. Her husband, a member of the Torrance Herald advertising staff, also was graduated from Torrance high school and had served overseas during the war.

A reception for the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McIntier left for a honeymoon trip to Del Mar. They will live at 1724 Martina ave.

Brownie Troop, Mothers Club Tell Activities

Members of Brownie Troop 409, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Ann Bradford and Marion Welton, recently entertained their mothers at an investiture ceremony. Invited were Barbara Reed, Cathy Schott, Victoria Hinshaw and Arline Kastrop. Brownie songs, games and a dance provided entertainment. Light refreshments were served by the girls.

Election of officers was the principal business conducted at a later meeting when the following officers were chosen to serve during May and June:

Charlene Baker, president; Barbara Reed, vice president; Arline Kastrop, treasurer; Peggy Sprout, scribe; Jane Wagner, song leader, and Nancy Welton, decorations.

The girls devoted the rest of the meeting time to making paper flowers for the May baskets which had been completed at an earlier meeting.

Turigliatto, Hanni Exchange Vows In Parsonage Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanni, of this city, announce the recent marriage of their daughter Marilyn to Mr. Joe Turigliatto, of Lynwood. Rev. C. Miles Mouton performed the impressive double-ring ceremony in the Baptist parsonage.

Miss Leona Stassin and the bride's brother, W. A. Hanni, attended the couple.

The bride was beautifully attired in pearl gray crepe with shell pink accessories. A corsage bouquet of gardenias and pink roses complemented her costume. Miss Stassin wore a street length dress of sky blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and red roses.

Mrs. Turigliatto was graduated from Torrance high school. Her husband, recently discharged following service with the U. S. Maritime Service, attended Compton Junior college.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Big Bear Lake the happy couple will make their home at 10950 Ruth st., Lynwood.

TO-LO-HA CLUB PLANS CARD PARTY

Members of To-Lo-Ha club will be hostesses at a benefit card party to be held in VFW hall, Lomita, at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, May 2.

A door prize will be given away during the evening and game prizes will be awarded high score holders at bridge, 600 and pinocle. Delicious refreshments will be served by President Ann Hight and her committee. Everyone is invited.

BRIDAL COUPLE . . . In a beautiful floral setting at Catholic Church of the Nativity Augustine E. Bray took as his bride Miss Alma Jean Timms, of Lomita. More than 200 friends of the principals attended the wedding and the attractively appointed reception following.

In one of the loveliest of spring weddings Miss Alma Jean Timms became the bride of Mr. Augustine Edward Bray in a Sunday afternoon ceremony performed recently in Catholic Church of the Nativity. Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor, officiated in the presence of 200 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a period gown of white satin and marquisette. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was held by a heart shaped pearl beaded tiara and she carried white roses with a detachable white orchid corsage. Her attendants were Miss Katherine Kelly, as maid of honor, who wore blue broaded satin and carried pink carnations, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Inez Kvilvang, Cubie Bohannon and Mary Bray, who wore identical gowns of pink broaded satin. Their flowers were arm bouquets of pink carnations and orchid sweet peas.

Charles Bray, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man and ushers were Cloys E. Timms Jr., William Sheehan and Bert Smith.

Miss Mary Scallen played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Jack Hertert, who sang.

A reception followed at Parish hall and later Mr. and Mrs. Bray left for a honeymoon trip.

Personal Shower At Jones Home Honors Mrs. Rojo

Mrs. Richard Rojo was complimented recently when Mrs. Paul V. Jones, of 2030 Cabrillo ave., entertained with a personal shower in her honor.

A profusion of spring flowers, tulips, carnations, roses and calla lilies were used in the living room to create an effective party background. Preceding the shower Mrs. Rojo was presented with a lovely corsage, a gift from her husband.

Prizewinners at games were Misses Pearl Roventine, Dolores Rogers and Elsa Stanley.

Following the presentation of Mrs. Rojo's many beautiful gifts, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Guy DeWitt. Others present were Misses Gerald Alter, Jay Roventine, William Rogers, Guy Weldon DeWitt, Hyman DeWitt, Charles T. Rippey Jr., Misses Pat Townsend, Madeline Ban, Nadine Paour and Elsa Stanley.

to Big Bear, Arrowhead and Balboa. They will make their home at 25036 Narbonne ave., Lomita.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloys E. Timms, of 2343 250th st., Lomita, was graduated from Narbonne high school.

Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Bray, of 2011 Andree ave., is a veteran of U.S. Navy service. A Torrance high school graduate, he is employed as a machinist with International Derrick and Equipment Company here.
