First District Welfare Meeting Tuesday To Attract Many Workers

The annual meeting of First District Welfare Center on June 10 promises to be an outstanding event, according to the program secretary of the program committee, with nearly 450 representative citizens from Torrance, Gardena, Palms Verde and Lomita in attendance together with prominent out-of-town guests.

The dinner meeting will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. in the Torrance Woman's club, 3422 Torrance ave., and tickets may be secured by contacting the First District Welfare Center, 3389 Post ave., Torrance 1956. Dinner tickets are $1.50.

Registration For El Camino College Starts

A nominating committee composed of Mrs. Charles M. Smith of Lomita, Mrs. William Mowatt of Gardena and the Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler of Torrance, is preparing a list of citizens from the three communities which will be voted upon as officers of the First District Welfare Council.

The principal speaker will be Frank Wallerson of the City Housing Authority. Other guest speakers will be Lynn D. Mowatt, general manager of the Community Chest, and C. W. Pfeiffer, executive secretary of the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Los Angeles.

Choral arrangements will be presented by the Girl Scouts Troop 610 under the direction of Mrs. Keith Jones. Camp Fire Girls of this area, with Mrs. Virginia Ruge, are providing the dining room decorations. Decoration of the cover of the annual report of the District Welfare Center, has been made by Betsy Green, field director of the Boy Scouts for this district.

Hospesses are Mrs. Don C. Mowatt of Torrance, Mrs. Mowatt and Mrs. Smith. Dinner will be prepared by volunteers under the direction of Mrs. Helen Miller.
