Gibson-Palumbo Vows Are Recited In Church Rites

Home from their honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Gibson, whose marriage was solemnized recently in Catholic Church of the Nativity. Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated in the presence of Torrance and out-of-town guests.

The bride, the former Miss Mickey Palumbo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Palumbo, of Kane, Pa., was beautifully attired in white faille fashioned with leg o' mutton sleeves, slight train and a bustleback effect. Her fingertip veil was draped from a seed pearl tiara and a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, completed her attire. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Miss Frances Frisino was maid of honor, in pink faille with cape sleeves and a Juliet cap of tulle with matching veil. A Colonial bouquet of tea roses complemented her gown. The bridesmaids, the Misses Elizabeth Klas and Bette Ulrich, both of Buffalo, N. Y., wore gowns fashioned alike of sea green faille and carried Colonial bouquets and carnations, pink roses and sweet peas. Juliet caps and veils completed the charming effect.

Little Carol Lee Gibson was flower girl in white dotted Swiss. Donald Kischel attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Leo Palumbo, brother of the bride and Robert Gibson, the bridegroom's brother.

Mrs. Neil J. McConlogue played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Mrs. C. A. Ruppel, who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria" and "On This Day." A reception at Parish hall immediately followed the church ceremony and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left for a honeymoon trip to Laguna Beach and Mexico. They are now at home at 2405 Torrance blvd.

The bridegroom, son of Armenta Gibson, of 1550 W. 65th st., Los Angeles, is a veteran of four years service with the Army Air Forces. He is affiliated with Pacific Finance Company, Los Angeles. Mrs. Gibson, employed by Torrance Medical Group, is a registered nurse, graduate of Buffalo General hospital, N. Y.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. —Matthew 5:16

CLUB PRESIDENT . . . Mrs. W. I. Laughton, who was installed as president of Torrance Woman's Club in a beautifully effective ceremony in the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. R. R. Smith, past president and active worker in the club, inducted Mrs. Laughton and her staff of officers at the luncheon meeting attended by club women and civic leaders.

A delightful event of the past week was the luncheon Wednesday afternoon in the clubhouse, which marked the conclusion of the club year for members of Torrance Woman's club.

At tables lovely with spring blossoms, a delicious luncheon was served to about 85 members; their guests and representatives of other clubs and women's organizations.

Introduced by Mrs. Sam V. Rauss, program chairman, Miss Nancy Ann Whyte at the piano and Miss Jane Scotton, accordionist, were enthusiastically received in a charming program.

As a token of their esteem club members presented their retiring president, Mrs. Chris Jones, with a past president's pin and another handsome gift. The presentations were made by Mrs. R. E. Olsen and Mrs. Myron Russell, respectively.

Mrs. R. R. Smith, past president, as installing officer inducted the new officers in a beautifully impressive ceremony. Gowned in pastel formal, each was presented with a pastel gladioli corsage as she took her place on the softly lighted clubhouse stage.

Club Juniors At Year's Final Business Meeting

Torrance Juniors met in the clubhouse Thursday evening for their final business meeting of the year. Reports of officers were given and a talk on "The Selection of Jewelry" was enjoyed.

Mrs. H. L. Wagner, L. A. McCoy, Paul L. Smith, B. H. Smith, J. P. Montague, Earl Clayton and Miss Lucy Peacock, attended the installation luncheon of the Senior Woman's club, at which time one of their new sponsors, Mrs. W. I. Laughton, was installed as president.

Popular games will be played and handmade articles will be awarded as prizes. A door prize will be drawn at 8 o'clock. Dorothy Smith will serve as chairman. Everyone is invited.

THOMPSONS ENTERTAIN GEORGIA GUESTS

Capt. John Graves, A.A.F., of Atlanta, Ga., enroute to Honolulu, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson here. Capt. Graves was accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Eloise Dukes, of Griffin, Ga., who remained for several days as the Thompsons' guest, returning by plane at the conclusion of her visit. Miss Dukes is also a sister-in-law of her hosts' son, Richard Thompson, of Griffin and formerly of this city.

JEWISH SISTERHOOD ARRANGES AFFAIRS

Meetings of Temple Menorah Sisterhood have been changed from Wednesday to the first and third Tuesday of each month.

Next meeting of the organization will be on Tuesday, June 17, in the home of Mrs. Sam Katz, 841 8th place, Hermosa Beach. Luncheon will be served. Sisterhood members are cordially invited.

A Sunday school party has been set for Sunday, June 15.

GAY PARTY ENJOYED BY LONG ESTABLISHED CLUB

Members of the F.N.P.C. club report a recent enjoyable party with cocktails at the House of Murphy and dinner at the Tail of the Cock. In the group were Mesdames Vivian York, Anna Batsch, Marie Beziel, Celina Dean, Margaret Fordice, Anna McFarland and Bertha Dunbar. The affair marked the conclusion of a series of evening card parties in the members' homes.
