

High School PTA
Installs Officers,
Honors Faculty

Concluding activities for the year for members of Torrance high school Parent Teachers Association was the enjoyable afternoon meeting which was marked by installation of officers and a beautifully appointed farewell tea given to honor faculty members.

Mrs. C. H. Turner, past president of the State PTA, as installing officer, inducted Mrs. A. C. Turner and her staff of officers in a charming manner.

A program of music highlighting the enjoyable affair featured Pat Clere in a piano solo and Carol Clark in an accordion section.

At the meeting, publicity chairman, Mrs. Laila P. Bowen, made announcement of the organization's first place award from Gateway Council for the excellence for the year's publicity book. Tenth District and State PTA seals also had been received, she stated.

Farewell Meeting
For Gateway Council
With Torrance PTA

Mrs. A. C. Turner will open her home at 1008 Acacia ave. for a meeting of the executive board of Gateway PTA Council to begin at 11:00 a.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. V. E. Hopkins, treasurer of the Council, will report on the picnic lunch held following the recent Tenth District meeting in Wilmington.

Friday's meeting will mark the last official gathering of the Torrance ladies with the group, inasmuch as Torrance high school PTA and their president, Mrs. Turner, will leave Tenth District and Gateway Council July 1 to become part of the First District.

CANADIAN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Krow, 1218 Arlington ave., recently entertained as their house guests, her brother, W. J. Goth of Edmonton, Alberta. Accompanying him were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rainier and Billy and his daughter, Miss Florence Goth, all of Edmonton.

Church Groups
To Be Named At Council Meeting

The Woman's Council of First Christian church will meet at 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 1, at the church.

Mrs. Gladys Pietzschke, who will preside, will announce the formation of new groups. All women of the church are urged to attend this interesting meeting so they may learn their new assignments.

TORRANCE TEACHERS ATTEND MUSICIANS MEET

Nadine Nickol and Kathryn Buffington, members of the Music Teachers association of Los Angeles, were hostesses for the closing meeting of the year held in Los Angeles on Saturday evening. A distinguished pianist, Channon Gelson, was featured in a remarkable program before many distinguished musicians, and after the program refreshments were served. A three-day convention of the musicians group will be held in San Francisco starting on June 30. Regular meetings will be resumed in September.

MARRIED . . . Philip MacHale, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. MacHale of Lomita and his bride, the former Miss Lois Severin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Severin, of 1403 Cota ave., Torrance. (Homer Morgan photo).

Among the lovely June weddings was that of Miss Lois Severin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Severin, of 1403 Cota ave., who became the bride of Mr. Philip MacHale, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. MacHale, of 25401 Eshelman ave. The ceremony which took place in Torrance Baptist church, was read by Rev. C. M. Northrup, assisted by Rev. Britton Ross in the presence of 200 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a white satin and marquisette gown. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was draped from a pearl-beaded coronet and she carried white rosebuds and bouvardia.

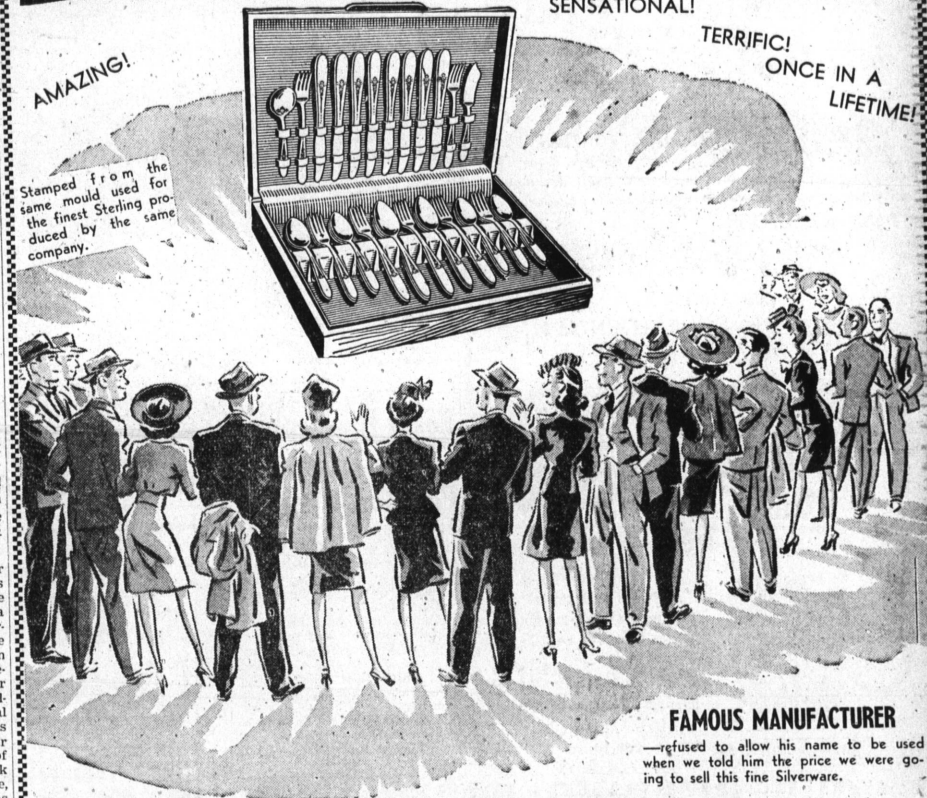

The bridal attendants were her sister, Miss Shirley Severin as maid of honor, who wore pale pink marquisette and carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow carnations and pink rosebuds; the bridesmaids, the Misses: Helen MacHale, sister of the bridegroom and Jeannette Farquhar wearing identical gowns of yellow and aqua taffeta. Colonial bouquets of yellow carnations and rosebuds complemented their gowns. Susan Severin, sister of the bride, was flower girl in pink marquisette. Rodney MacHale, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Kenneth Eade, of Lomita, attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Harold Hudson and Alvis Tuck, both of Gardena.

Leslie Long, at the piano, played the accompaniment for Roy White, vocal soloist, and Leland Pisel played a vibraharp selection.

A buffet supper for intimate friends followed at the home of the bride's parents and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. MacHale left for a honeymoon trip to Sequoia National Park. They will live in Harbor City.

The bride attended Pepperdine college and her husband was a student at Occidental college. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. C. Ward, of Springdale, Ark., Col. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, of Salt Lake City, Utah; Miss Ruby Corryell, of Myrtle Creek, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ross, Bakersfield; Mrs. Ann C. Geck, Huntington Park; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johns, North Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stahl, Westwood.

IT IS PERFECTLY ALL RIGHT FOR A YOUTH TO WANT TO HOLD ON TO HIS YOUTH — BUT SHE SHOULD NOT DO IT WHILE HE IS DRIVING.

You can hold on to your "youth" too, if you get sufficient exercises. The best way to do this is with a sport that you enjoy—such as bowling.
