Walter Connolly Handicap At Del Mar Saturday

Routers from the handicap division get in their first licks Saturday in the fifth running of the $7500 added Walter Connolly Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, at Del Mar.

The stake, named in honor of the beloved actor who was one of Del Mar's first directors until his passing several years ago, has drawn a class-packed field of stakesters.

Set to try conclusions are such top runners as Gilmore and Rolphs' Bric-a-Bac, winner of the Labor Day Handicap here last summer; San Luis Stable's Montanes; C. H. Jones and Sons' Anecdote; Golden Gate Acres Stable's Observer—all winners here opening week; Yolo Stable's Sierra Fox; W. W. Crenshaw's Sunredgra; Mrs. Harry James' Coletto; Black Oaks Ranch's Makai and Howard Hawks' War Valor. Montanes will be gunning for a repeat triumph in the Walter Connolly, having won the 1946 running of the classic.

The seaside course today was well on its way into the second week of its 41-day summer meeting here with six full days of the sport—Monday through Saturday—holding forth each week through September 20.

Oilers Move Into Final Round Defeating Alloy Diecraft 8-3

The Torrance Signal Oilers moved into the final round of the 1947 Semi-pro tournament at the Torrance park Monday night at the expense of the Alloy Diecraft nine and veteran hurler Tillie Schaffer, eliminating the Alloy nine by a score of 8-3.

Schaffer hurled tight ball for the Alloy squad but his support blew up behind him committing nine costly blunders. The veteran left-hander whiffed 15 Oiler batsmen, walking eight.

Andrew "Pullman" Porter hurled for the Oilers, allowing six hits, striking out nine and walking one.

Leading the Oiler batters again was young Don Mallot, short-stop, with three hits in three official trips to the plate. The slim youngster repeated his feat of last Tuesday by coming through with a line single in the sixth inning with the bases full and two out, to give the locals a lead which proved to be sufficient to win the game.

In the seventh inning Manager Art Swartz brought two more runs across for the Oilers, when with the bases loaded he called for a triple steal and Schaffer threw the pitch into the dirt allowing Coogan to score from third. On the next pitch Swartz laid down a sacrifice bunt to squeeze Bob McNamara across the plate.

The Oilers will face Raul Deleaux' Trojans in the final round of play tonight at the park, the winner to play in the finals of the tournament.

Sunday afternoon the Oilers journeyed to San Pedro to meet the San Pedro Merchants and came away with a 4-2 victory. The Oilers borrowed young Nello Saggiani from the Jugoslav-Americans for the afternoon and the diminutive right-hander almost got away with a no-hit contest. In the ninth inning, two walks, an error, a man hit by a pitched ball, and a single, the only hit off Saggiani, combined to give the Merchants their two tallies.

Young Leonard Swartz, 13-year-old son of Manager Art Swartz, caught the last four innings for the Oilers, turning in a first class performance.

Cal Barnes, Oiler left fielder, had another good day at the plate getting three hits in four times at bat, including a long three-bagger.

Black Yankees Compete In City Softball League

Organized by David Molinar Jr. and captained by Tony Ordaz, the Black Yankees started play in the Pee Wee division of the City Softball leagues last week.

In addition to the names published last week, the following persons and organizations have contributed a sum sufficient to sweater a full ETAOINSHRDLU sweater a full softball team: Tom Babbitt, El Prado Furniture Co., and Torrance American Legion Post No. 170.

Daniel Desmond, chairman of the sweater fund, and Elmer Moon, city recreation worker, expressed their thanks this week to all those who made the worthy drive a success. "The increased interest and enthusiasm shown by the boys upon receiving their team sweaters justifies the efforts put forth for their procurement," they added.

Negrete, Corkhill In Rematch At Wilmington Bowl

Freddie Negrete, a Wilmington stringbean with dynamite in both fists, and a two-fisted exfootball star from Compton college, Bobby Corkhill, will clash in the main event of the amateur fight show at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow night.

It's a rematch of a sensational go of last week, which found the two lads tossing leather from gong to gong—and even a little after each bell, too.

So sensational was the fight, which Negrete won by decision, thanks to a rapier-like left which he used repeatedly, that fight fans of the Harbor area demanded a retake Friday night—and the boys are willing and ready to continue right where they left off.

Tony Grich, sensational San Pedro Slav, a comer with more than just press clippings to prove his claim to future greatness in the fight game, will engage Curtis Fleman of Pasadena in the semi-windup, while Bill Slattery, coming up the ladder nicely as a middleweight fight prospect, will oppose Huey Fleming in the top preliminary.

Grich, by the way, has won eight out of nine fights by kayo, and will earn a main event billing at the Bowl if he gets by Fleman tonight.

The first preliminary will begin at 8:30 p. m.
