Second Round Of Oilers Move Into Final Round Pee Wee Division Defeating Alloy Diecraft 8-3

The Torrance Signal Oilers plate getting three moved into the final round of the 1947 Semi-ipro tournament at the Torrance park Monday night at the expense of the Alloy Diecraft, nine and veteran hurler tillle Sekatfer, eliminating the Alloy, nine by a score of 8-3.

Schaffer hurled tight ball for the Alloy squad but his support to blew up behind him committing nine costly blunders. The veteran left-hander whiffed 15 Oiler latter and left-hander wild batter and left-hander

And rew "Pullman" Porter hurled for the Oilers, allowing six hits, striking out nine and walking one.

Leading the Oiler batters again was young Don Mallot, shortstop, with three hits in three official trips to the plate. The slim youngster repeated his feat of last Tuesday by coming through with a line single in the sixth inning with the bases full and two out, to give the locals a lead which proved to be sufficient to win the game.

In the seventh inning Mangager Art Swartz brought two more runs across for the Oilers, when with the bases loaded he called for a triple steal and Schaffer threw the pitch into the dirt allowing Coogan to score from third. On the next pitch Sw art z laid down a sacrifice bunt to squeeze Bob McNamara across the plate.

The Oilers will face Raul Dedeaux Trojans in the final round of play tonight at the park, the Sunday afternoon the Oilers journeyed to San Pedro to meet. The Oilers borrowed young Neilo Saggiani from the Jugoslav Americans for the afternoon and the diminutive right-hander almost got away with a nohlt contest. In the ninth inning, two walks, an error, a man hit by a pitched ball, and a single, thonly hit off Saggiani, combined to give the Merchants their two tallies.

Young Leonard Swartz, 13 year-old son of Manager hards. Swartz, caught the last, four innings for the Oilers, turning in a first class performance.
